CRUELTY CHARGE PROBE AT INFIRMARY IS ABANDONED

BOARD IS UNABLE TO DISCOVER ANY PROOF

Testimony of Brutality at County Institution Is Discredited, and Witness Is Missing

NO CENSURE FOR ACCUSED OVERSEER

Supervisor Foss Says
He Will Continue Fight for Change
at County's Farm

Declaring that the testimony which had been introduced, purporting to show that inmates of the County Infirmity drank with bosses of the institution, and that one of the bosses brutally maltreated crippled and mentally defective old men, was not pertinent to the charges of inhumanity of the place, four members of the Board of Supervisors, following their investigation of the place yesterday, have dismissed the accusations and declared them to be without foundation in fact.

Supervisor Fred W. Foss, the man who made the charges, announced today that he would continue his fight for "change of conditions at the county institution." He also announced his intention of filing charges before the supervisors against John Lavin, a saloonman, whose place of business near the infirmary is said to be frequented by inmates and officers of the place. Foss will ask that Lavin's license be revoked on the ground that he has violated the rule prohibiting the sale of intem-perants to the indigent county charges.

WITNESS STILL MISSING

William King, who was to have been the star witness in the probe, is still missing. He mysteriously disappeared from sight yesterday when Deputy Sheriff Dave Jones, armed with supernatural powers, in various parts of Berkeley, where he was supposed to be. It was King who told Foss that he had been unceremoniously turned away from the infirmary by Dr. C. A. Willis, the superintendent, because he had refused to perform labors which he said he was physically unable to do.

Foss, during the inquiry, called Captain A. T. Smith, a retired naval officer, who has been an inmate of the infirmary for seven months.

"Captain," Foss asked, "have you ever seen any instances of brutality in the dining-room here?"

"Yes, quite often," replied the old man. "On numerous occasions I have seen James Spencer, the dining-room boss, throw crippled and aged men out of the place. He has thrown them bodily through the doors, and several of them, being crippled and infirm, lost their balance and fell down."

"Why were they thrown out?" was asked. "What was the cause of Spencer's action?"

"Oh," the witness replied, "many of them are not normal mentally and do not always understand the things said to them. Well, Spencer is quick-tempered, and when some of these men tried to get to the dining tables out of their turn he would tell them to leave the place. When they did not he threw them out."

"That's all I want to know," Foss told the other supervisors. There is ample substantiation of that charge."

Other members of the board then cross-examined Captain Smith.

"Doesn't the dining-room boss have

'AGED MEN THROWN ABOUT'

"On numerous occasions I have seen James Spencer, the dining-room boss, throw crippled and aged men out of the place. He has thrown them bodily through the doors, and several of them being crippled and infirm, lost their balance and fell down. Spencer is quick-tempered, and when some of these men tried to get to the dining tables out of their turn he would tell them to leave the place. When they did not he threw them out."—Testimony of Captain A. T. Smith given at supervisors' investigation of infirmary management.

U.C. COMPLAINS CADAVERS ARE NOT SUPPLIED

Says Infirmary Buries Many That Should Be Given to Science.

Complaint against the scarcity of cadavers produced by the county infirmity authorities was lodged with Dr. Robert O. Moody, associate professor of anatomy in the University of California Medical School. He complained that Dr. C. A. Willis, the infirmity superintendent, was too chary with the bodies of those who died at the institution, insisting on giving them burial in the event that the deceased left relatives or friends.
The board has taken the complaint under advisement, and will decide just what to do about it next Monday.
A resolution will probably be adopted instructing Dr. Willis to permit dissecting classes to have more of the bodies of those who die at the institution.

The law reads that bodies of indigent dead, unclaimed by friends or relatives, may be given to surgical colleges for purposes of dissection. Dr.
Moody complained that whereas the university school had received as high as fifteen bodies annually in years gone by, but four had been received for this year. He complained that the Oakland College of Medicine at Thirtieth and Grove streets received seven last year.

"The cause of the decrease," Dr.
Willis explained, "is this: I have made a rule that where an indigent person leaves the name of a relative or a friend, the body be buried in the county cemetery, even though no claim is made for the remains."

"I believe," said Dr. Moody, "that you should abolish that rule, and give away all of the bodies of indigent deaths that are unclaimed, whether they leave any friends or relatives or not."

The supervisors did not express an opinion in the matter.

ACCUSES WIFE OF SEIZING ALL THEIR WEALTH

Millionaire Sues for Divorce and Recovery of His Property.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Accusing his wife of obtaining all his property by a clever ruse, then of deserting him for another man of social prominence, Samuel H. West-phall, a millionaire mining man, member of several clubs and accomplished amateur artist, filed suit today in the Superior court for divorce from Jessie S. Westphall and for restitution of his wealth.

Until the case comes to trial, it is said, the name of the "other man" will be kept secret; but the disclosure, according to Westphall's counsel, Attorney C. H. Sooy, will be a social sensation.

Mrs. Westphall is the daughter of a former wealthy banker of Indianapolis, where the couple made their home for six years, following their marriage, May 18, 1897. She is accused of conspiring to induce West-phall to leave San Francisco on a little sketching trip through the Santa Clara valley, and then of rifling his office, safe deposit box and garage, ransacking his private effects, hypothecating his stocks and securities and transferring his bank account to a trustee.

A LETTER RECEIVED

Then, it is charged, she shut down and wrote him a letter, the contents of which his attorneys are keeping secret but which they promise to reveal in Superior Judge Morgan's court when the case comes to trial, and which will precipitate the disclosure of the "man in the case."

It was on March 15, according to the complaint, that Mrs. Westphall, "conceived of the plan of persuading plaintiff to leave San Francisco for a few days and of appropriating all of the securities and money belonging to plaintiff and to the case of the state of California and of remaining away until plaintiff should agree with her upon a separation of said property; and in pursuance of said plan, induced plaintiff to take a few days'
motor trip in the country. Defendant, which while she operated all of his estate receipts and took everything
she could lay her hands on."

It is charged that on the pretext of having Westphall's valet clean his office she obtained his bunch of keys, with which she opened all of his estate receipts and took everything
she could lay her hands on."

A KIND HUSBAND

"Mr. Westphall has always been very much in love with his wife," explained Attorney Sooy. "He has taken pleasure in putting all of his stocks in her name and has frequently told her so with the idea of pleasing her and adding to her enjoyment of life. Present on the part of what was going on during his absence until he returned and found a letter from her. Then he went to his office and discovered that everything was gone.
She even looked up the garage, depriving him of the use of any of his three automobiles."

Being asked if there was a man in the case Sooy would make no positive statement, but went so far as to say that someone would have "a great fall from a place of high degree when the case comes to trial."

Mrs. Westphall is now in Salt Lake city, where she is supposed to be serving on her today, and this morning in Los Angeles an injunction was served on the Yellow Pine Mine Company, the property of which is in southern Nevada, and which is practically owned by Westphall, returning him at present on his investment $15,000 a month.

Westphall's sketches have been exhibited at the Bohemian club and he himself is well known in the artists' colony.

He is 45 years old, and his wife is three years younger, but does not look a day over 30, according to her friends.

24-Hour Courtship a Failure

MRS. WM. J. CAPLES, WHO HAS DISCOVERED THAT ELOPE-MENTS IN A HURRY DO NOT ALWAYS LEAD TO HAPPINESS.

Mrs. Caples Not to Return to Husband of Alleged "Striking" Habits

"I am wiser now, wise enough not to elope with another man whom I had known but twenty-four hours—and expect happiness."
"The ghosts of too many other women rise continually before my eyes."
"It is too much to think that, without knowing the faults of another, you can be content with the intoxication of a first fascination. It can't be done;
I have tried it."

"I am going to begin all over again; to live quietly until the ugly feeling of despair and dismay leave me."—What Mrs. Wm. J. Caples has to say.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Supporting her in her determination to remain apart from her husband, William J. Caples, and to resist all efforts toward a reconciliation, according to Mrs. Muriel Buell Caples, who secretly obtained a divorce last Thursday, are the ghosts of other women—"of too
many other women."

Some of these ghosts, she said today at the home of her father, Dr.
W. E. Buell, are of the past and past

Mrs. Muriel Buell Caples, who secretly
obtained a divorce last Thursday, are
the ghosts of other women—"of too

HER BLOOD HUNT TUNNELS ABOUT HER forehead, and her baby eyes asking understanding, Mrs. Caples, who is as slight as a school girl, looked exceedingly beautiful as she explained the reasons why she had refused to become reconciled with her former husband, and why she had obtained the divorce.

"I can not forget a certain dinner party," she said. "Oh, if I could, or if it had not occurred! Then I believe I would be a much happier woman and I am sure I would be less tired and more content. I was wise enough not to elope with another man whom I had known but twenty-four hours—and expect happiness! It is too much to think that without knowing the faults of another one can accustom himself to live with him, content with the intoxication of a first fascination.
It can not be done; I have tried it.
Immediately after our marriage Caples began paying attention to other women and he began striking me. It was a habit of his—a hitting habit."

NEVER TAKE UP!
"I heard whisperings of his previous experiences with other women, but I never thought there would be any more of them after I came into his life. Talk of reconciliation is absurd.
I can see too many shadowy forms of other women."

SEVEN DAYS WEDDED.

Seven days after his marriage to Muriel Buell, she complained that he had been beating her and the following week he was arrested, following an encounter with Eleanore Godesy, a 16-year-old chorus girl.

Following his marriage to Muriel Buell in Los Angeles, whether they eloped, Caples was once more in trouble.

"The ph is always being brought before the public. They are trying to make another Harry Thaw out of me," he declared.

It was all these things that Mrs.
Caples, the second, who weighs but 90 pounds and stands only 5 feet in her shoes, was thinking of as she spoke of the ghosts of other women and breathed a sigh of relief and thanksgiving for liberty in the safety of her father's house today.

FIGHTING IN DUBLIN STREETS CONTINUES; REBELLION GROWING

Premier Asquith Tells House Situation
Indicates Great Spread of Movement, Especially in Western Part of Country

NEWSPAPERS ATTACK HIGH OFFICIALS

DROGHEDA, Ireland, April 27.—The disturbances in Dublin are being quelled effectually. Only in isolated places is there any disorder. All is quiet here and in the surrounding districts. No Dublin newspapers have arrived here since Monday. Drogheda is twenty-six miles north of Dublin.

LONDON, April 27.—Martial law has been declared throughout all Ireland. Fighting is still going on in the streets of Dublin.
Premier Asquith announced in the House today that the rebels continue to hold important public buildings in Dublin and street encounters were still in progress.

Premier Asquith told the House the Irish situation still presented serious features today and that there were indications of a spread of the movement to other parts of Ireland, especially in the west.

Replying to a question whether the government had been warned of a dangerous growth of sedition, Premier Asquith said:
"The first and paramount duty of the government is to restore order and to stamp out rebellion with all possible vigor. That we are doing."

"Behind that there is undoubtedly an obligation which rests upon the government of making a searching investigation into the causes of and the responsibility for these events. That obligation we fully recognize and intend to discharge."

SEARCHING INVESTIGATION PLANNED.

The premier said there would be a searching investigation into the cause of and report of the outbreak. He added that it was obviously necessary to exercise military censorship while martial law prevailed in Ireland. This censorship, however, would be directed merely with regard to the essential military requirements of the situation. All possible latitude in the transmission of news would be allowed.

Sir Edward Carson and John Redmond, who were the leaders of the opposing factions in the Irish home rule controversy, expressed in the House their abhorrence of the uprising and their desire to support the government.

Replying to a request from Sir Henry Dalziel that the House sit in Monday to discuss the Dublin outbreak, Premier Asquith said that debate on the question could only be mischievous.

"Our allies already have been made aware by Sir Edward Carson and Mr. Redmond," the premier added, "that the movement is local only and has no sympathy from the representative Irish leaders."

DIVER CASE IS BELIEVED NEAR PEACEFUL END

Kaiser and Ambassador Gerard Hold Conference at Battle Front.

BERLIN, April 27.—The crisis between the United States and Germany virtually has passed. There will be no rupture predicated on developments to date. The United Press is able to make this statement on the most authentic authority.

The crisis passed Tuesday when Foreign Minister von Jagow received information respecting President Wilson's attitude. Opinion differs as to whether chief credit belongs to Ambassador Gerard or Ambassador von Bernstorff. The latter played an important part because he had a rather free hand in handling the negotiations.

Gerard will leave Berlin tonight for the German headquarters, where he will be received by the German emperor.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, who up to the present has been at the army headquarters, is expected to come to Berlin tomorrow to prepare Germany's answer to the latest American note.

A momentous conference with the continuance of friendly relations with America at stake is in progress at Kaiser Wilhelm's field headquarters today. The Kaiser has received the views of Von Bethmann-Hollweg, General von Falkenhayn and Admiral von Holtzendorff.

Washington's word through Ambassador Gerard, defining the American demand more accurately, is awaited. It is generally understood that the German reply will not meet the United States demands fully. How far Germany may go is unknown, but it is believed the concessions will suf-

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Ambassador von Bernstorff here and Ambassador Gerard in Berlin are doing their utmost today to prevent a rupture between the United States and Germany. In discussing Bernstorff's attitude, one official said:

"There is no question that Bernstorff is anxious to avoid a break. He will do all possible to continue the friendly relations. He has done so in the past. He is in the very hottest of these 'harvest of Russians' in Galicia and Poland."

RAIDER CREW CAPTURED.

Another patrol boat fired a shot across the auxiliary's bows the following day. Seeing no reason why a Dutch tramp vessel should be in the north Irish waters, the patrol ordered the auxiliary to precede her to Queenstown. The submarine, carrying Casement, followed submerged.
The auxiliary steamed southward for hours, but seeing no chance of eluding the patrol boat, the German crew, finally blew up their vessel. The crew was captured by British sailors from the patrol.

Sir Roger Casement, it is reported, has expressed belief that the uprising in Ireland would be a failure. Because of his capture. His leadership, he said, was necessary to the success of the movement.

Senate to Hear
Japan's Demand

In Immigration Bill Amendment

WASHINGTON, April 27.— Japan's demands with regard to exclusion of laborers from the United States are reported to have been completely met in an amendment to the Burnett immigration bill, which a majority of the Senate immigration committee agreed to today. Only an informal meeting of Democratic members was held. It is expected that the full committee will meet next week and confirm today's action.

Japan would be seriously offended at any enactment designed to keep Japanese from entering the United States, the committee was told. The Mikado feels that the passing of a law regulating entrance of laborers, while the "gentlemen's agreement" was in effect, would be a reflection on Japan's honor.

Seven Men May End
Railway Wage Dispute

CHICAGO, April 27.—Three men representing practically all the railroads of the country, and four others representing approximately 200,000 railroad traffic employees, were to meet here today to arrange for conferences between the two factions at which the trainmen's demands for an eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime are to be discussed.

J. W. Higgins of Chicago, J. G. Walder of New York and Charles P. Nell of Washington will represent, respectively, western, eastern and southeastern lines, having an aggregate of 200,000 miles of railroad. W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen's brotherhood; W. S. Sloan of the engineers; W. S. Carter of the firemen; and A. B. Garrison of the conductors, will represent the men of their respective brotherhoods. The ultimatum of the employees asking for a written reply to their demands expires next Saturday.

Carranza Order Is Against U. S. Miners

DOUGLAS, Ariz., April 27.—American-owned mines at El Tigre, Nacozari, Sahuaripa and other places in Sonora will be forced out of business, it was predicted here today as a result of General Carranza's order prohibiting the export of gold and silver coin and silver bullion.

Carranza's order will go into effect next week. Mining officials here today said that their interests would suffer heavily as a result of the Carranza order. They believed it might mean extinction of American mining interests in Mexico. It was also reported that another order prohibiting the export of copper will be issued.

Zeppelin Bombards
Margate, England

BERLIN, April 27.—A Zeppelin bombed Margate, England, last night. It was officially announced today.

Margate is a fishing town and seaside resort 80 miles southeast of London. The admiralty in London early today reported a Zeppelin raid last night.

Meat Packers Settle Claims With Britain

LONDON, April 27.—Lord C. Gris-com, one of the representatives of the Chicago meat packers who took part in the settlement of the case arising from the detention of American meat cargoes by the British government, left for New York today after settling the final details and the payment of the sum awarded by the government to the packers.

Russian Aircraft
Bomb Constantinople

PARIS, April 27.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Athens says it is reliably stated there that two Russian hydroaeroplanes operated over Constantinople on Monday night.

LIGHTHOUSE BOMBED.

PARIS, April 27.—A Havas agency despatch from Athens reports that a German aeroplane flew over the island of Imbros in the Aegean Sea yesterday, throwing bombs at the lighthouse on Point Keppalos. No serious damage was caused, however.

France Deceived by Russians, Says Expert

BERLIN, April 27.—Major Morcht, the military critic of the Tagblatt, in his review of the military situation, refers to the "5000 Russians" landed at Marseilles. His review, as summarized by the Overseas News Agency today, is as follows:

"The arrival of 5000 Russians at Marseilles illustrates the resolution of France. The French people, who are usually impressed and deceived, are jubilant over the arrival of these Russians, whose coming necessitated a three month voyage, but German troops have learned how to handle these 'harvest of Russians' in Gal-

DETAILS OF VILLA FIGHT ARE AWAITED

Colonel Dodd's Cavalry Believed Following Up Victory

EL PASO, April 27.—Another battle against the Villistas, defeated by Colonel Dodd last Saturday, is expected hourly today. After a brief halt at Minaca to procure supplies and fresh horses, Dodd resumed the chase. Americans from Provenencia and San Antonio, it is believed, will join him in the Villistas making for the inaccessible mountains east of Minaca.

Most of the American expeditionary force units are concentrated at the Nampulco and Dublin bases, but several hundred picked men are far below those points continuing the chase after Francisco Villa. Official reports failed to mention the whereabouts of Villa. Aviator Willis, en route to Fort Sam Houston hospital, believes that Villa is between Minaca and Salavina.

Among the demands to be made by General Alvaro Obregon in his forthcoming conference with General Hugh Scott, according to Mexican authorities, will be a request that the United States name a date for the withdrawal of its forces from Mexico irrespective of whether Villa has been captured. It will also be demanded that the Americans agree not to seize Mexican railroads. The Americans must also agree not to reinforce the expedition.

SITUATION SERIOUS.

TORREON, April 27.—American Consul Cook at Durango city has advised all Americans to leave the city, and is himself considering the advisability of going to the border. A serious situation has been caused over the violent anti-American agitation which has been carried on by the Durango newspapers since the American soldiers and Mexicans clashed at Parral.

PRISONERS KILLED.

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 27.—Four Mexican prisoners held at Santa Clara were reported to have been killed while attempting to escape. Scores of captured Villistas are detained at various points along the lines of communication of the American expedition. Much valuable information has been obtained from them.

A number of Americans, wounded by snipers, have passed through Columbus en route to Fort Bliss.

HOPE FOR ASSISTANCE.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 27.—General Hugh Scott, chief of staff, and Major General Fredrick Funston, vice commander, left for El Paso this morning, hoping soon to receive definite word of the destination of General Alvaro Obregon, Mexican war minister, who is en route to the border for a conference with the Americans.

Scott and Funston have the war department's instructions with regard to the conference. They have not as yet been made public, but it is reported they contain comprehensive statements of the administration's attitude toward Mexican banditry and suggest several points to be arbitrated with General Obregon in the hope of ending full Carranzista co-operation. They contain no indication of a contemplated withdrawal.

Bandits Ambush U. S. Supply Expedition

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 27.—Truckmen arriving here today told of being ambushed by a roving band of about fifteen marauders attached to no Mexican faction, in a canyon near Sateen several days ago. The truckmen and their soldier guard took a position behind the cars and returned fire, routing the Mexicans and capturing two of their number, according to the story. Other truckmen said that snipers' bullets had sliced their machines on the trip north but that they had been unable to locate the source of the firing.

Pershing's Command Is Well Supplied

COLUMBUS, N. M., April 27.—Whatever the future development of the Mexican situation may be, it is certain that General J. J. Pershing's expeditionary command will be well prepared so far as food and equipment is concerned. During the full in operations, nine motor truck companies have been kept busy carrying supplies to the army in Mexico, until now, it was stated today, every detachment of the command is rationed at least a month ahead and is prepared with ample ammunition and clothing for any emergency.

a trying time?" asked John F. Mullins.

"Yes," the witness replied. "These old men, you know, are often querulous. Many of them are half-witted, and they are not always in a good humor."

"Could you blame Spencer on some occasions, when he ordered a man from the place?" asked Captain Smith.

"What would you have done in his place?" asked Charles Meyer, who was sitting as chairman of the investigating board.

"I must say," the Captain answered, "that I would probably have done the same, although I do not claim to be a saint."

"You can't really censure Spencer then?" asked Daniel J. Murphy.

"Well, no," answered Captain Smith.

"I am satisfied and will ask no more questions," Foss announced and the witness was excused. Spencer, who is deaf, was called in and asked a few questions. He positively denied the charges of brutality, admitting having struck one man, a cripple, a few weeks ago because he sought to be served with his food before his scheduled time. The small dining hall, he explained, made it necessary to serve three tables at each meal.

CHARGES BORNE OUT.

"Gentlemen," Foss told the four other members, "King is not here. I have told you, however, what his charges were. I have, to the best of my knowledge, substantiated his accusations. I have proved that William Brumley, the yard boss here, tends bar at Lavin's saloon on Saturday afternoons when he is off duty, and he admits having had a good many drinks with inmates of this institution, many of them purchased for him by the inmates."

"I have proved, also, that there is brutality, favoritism and other evils in existence here, incident to the system of having petty bosses and overlords. I have shown enough for a real investigation to be made, and I have shown enough to make it necessary for the board of supervisors to fight every move that I make, should get behind me in making a fair investigation. You should turn this institution upside down in your search for the truth in the case, rather than place every obstacle in my way in my attempt to make things better for the poor inmates of the institution. Make no decision, I ask you, until you make a real investigation, not a 'stuffed one' like this. Here we are out here, heralded by a brass band. They're known about the investigation here for ten days, and maybe they weren't ready for us this morning."

Kelley at this point read reports of two grand juries and statements of members of the Alameda County Welfare Commission to the effect that their investigations of the case had been "satisfactory."

Kelley also attacked the character of King, declaring him to be a drunkard, Mullins, Meyer and Murphy agreed with Kelley, and the meeting was adjourned with the general announcement that Foss's charges had been "satisfactorily" handled and no further investigation was necessary.

LAVIN MUST QUIT.

"I'll see to it that Lavin quits selling liquor," Meyer explained.

"That must stop. Brumley must quit drinking with the inmates, the men who are under his charge during the day."

"I've done what I could," Foss said after the investigation. "This has been a farce as an investigation. The District Attorney's office has hindered rather than assisted me. The affidavits of inmates which I have presented, telling of Lavin's liquor selling, have been ignored. They know of these six months ago, but have taken absolutely no action."

"It's not in our province to make this investigation," T. P. Wittschen, Deputy District Attorney, who was present at the investigation, explained.

AFFIDAVITS HELD.

Supervisor Foss made public today the language of two affidavits which he holds. These read:

"Frank C. McQuoid of Oakland, Alameda County, Cal., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

"He is an inmate of the Alameda County Infirmary, in Alameda county, California, and being an indigent he entered said county infirmary to obtain treatment for an amputated limb."

"That he, on the morning of October 2, 1915, in company with one William B. Wells, also a county infirmary inmate, obtained and paid for several alcoholic drinks in both the following saloons:

John Laven, corner of San Lorenzo Junction and East Fourteenth street, Oakland, Alameda county, Cal.

Rose & Picanco, at Ashland, Alameda county, Cal.

That the specific purchase of liquors heretofore definitely set forth is but one instance and that he was a frequent visitor at the above saloons for the purpose of buying alcoholic drinks."

William B. Wells of Oakland, Alameda county, Cal., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

"He is an inmate of the Alameda County Infirmary, in Alameda county, California, and being an indigent he entered said county infirmary to obtain treatment for locomotor ataxia."

"That he, on the morning of October 2, 1915, in company with one Frank McQuoid, also a county infirmary inmate, obtained and paid for several alcoholic drinks in both of the following saloons:

John Laven, corner of San Lorenzo Junction and East Fourteenth street, Oakland, Alameda county, Cal.

Rose & Picanco, at Ashland, Alameda county, Cal.

That the specific purchase of liquors heretofore definitely set forth is but one instance and that he was a frequent visitor at the above saloons for the purpose of buying alcoholic drinks."

"WHITEWASH" REPUTATED.

The reports from the Alameda County Welfare Commission, read at the investigation yesterday as an indictment of the hospital management, it developed today, was the old report made some time ago as a general report of the institutions under the commission's direction and submitted for perusal by the grand jury. It had no bearing on the present situation, according to Mrs. Jean Howard McQuoid, one of the members.

"The report was made several weeks ago, long before this trouble started," was her statement, "and was prepared according to law for submission to the grand jury and a copy was filed with the supervisors and may have come into contact with the present charges and is not a denial of any charges. It dealt with building conditions at the hospital, which were not found satisfactory, but had nothing to do with the hospital administration. We have made no investigation of the present charges."

Will File Charge Against Saloonist

Supervisor Fred W. Foss told members of the board of supervisors today that he would file charges against John Lavin, saloon man of San Lorenzo Junction, who is accused of having repeatedly sold liquor to inmates of the county infirmary, next Monday morning, when he would ask that his liquor license be taken from him.

In filing his charges Foss will present two affidavits, one by Frank McQuoid, an inmate of the institution at the present time, and one by William B. Wells, a former inmate. These men have made affidavits that Lavin, the yard boss here, tends bar at Lavin's saloon on Saturday afternoons when he is off duty, and he admits having had a good many drinks with inmates of this institution, many of them purchased for him by the inmates.

"I want to know just who gave him the money with which to purchase liquor," stated Foss. "He was at Lavin's saloon Tuesday night, the day before the investigation in an intoxicated condition. Now he is missing. I have undoubtedly left this part of the country. I want to know where he secured the money with which to purchase liquor and with which to procure transportation. I know that he was penniless a few days ago. He was too old and too ill to work and I know that he had no friends from whom he could get money."

"There is something very strange about the disappearance of this witness at the very time that he was to have appeared at this investigation and offer testimony against the hospital management. I will continue to look for him and when I find him I will learn the source of his unexpected financial good fortune and the reason of his disappearance."

DEATHS IN SALE.

McQuoid, one of the men who swore to affidavits against Lavin, appeared before the supervisors today and denied a recently published account in which D. J. Murphy, chairman of the board, accused him of having sold his wooden leg. After he had made his statement McQuoid was placed on the pill by Supervisors J. M. Kelley and John F. Mullins, admitting under a cross-fire of questions that he had tried to borrow money on the leg, which leg he was repairing. Kelley read a statement in which he accused McQuoid of habitual intemperance. Mullins also accused him of intemperance, declaring that McQuoid had been admitted to the infirmary more than a score of different times.

It was after McQuoid had left that Foss announced he would present his charges against Lavin next Monday.

The Lavin saloon has been in existence for more than fifty years, having been established by the father of the present proprietor, whose brother is farm foreman at the county infirmary.

Foss will ask the revocation of Lavin's license on the ground that he knowingly repeatedly violated the board's rule that no liquor should be sold to inmates of the county infirmary. It is anticipated that a hard fight will be made by Lavin and his friends to refute the Foss charges and save the license from revocation.

Germans Whip British in Egyptian Attack

LONDON, April 27.—A further official account of fighting in Egypt Easter Sunday says the Worcestershire yeomanry was attacked by a superior force, including 1000 Germans and a number of tanks, and forced to retire. A number of the yeomen being taken prisoner. The account adds that the Quetta oasis now is cleared of the enemy excepting a force of 1000 Turks at Bir el Bah.

POLITICAL NEWS STATE

REPORT TELLS OF G.O.P. ENTHUSIASM

Regular Republicans Working in All Counties for Party Success.

Following the plan of the Republican state campaign committee to thoroughly organize in every county in the state, headquarters were opened yesterday in Alameda, under the supervision of the Alameda county Republican central committee, which for some months past has been in direct charge of the campaign in this county.

With Colonel E. H. Bullock in charge, the headquarters will be maintained at 210 1/2 Santa Clara avenue. A personal canvass of the city is to be made and arrangements perfected for precinct work from now until the day of the primary. The Alameda city committee comprises T. C. West, chairman; E. H. Bullock, secretary; William Hammond Jr., J. S. McIlwain, Frank J. Smith, Otto Hiehl, Joseph Stacker and Dr. Tom Campbell.

REPUBLICAN DAY.
From all sections of the state the regular Republican committee received enthusiastic messages yesterday of the success of "Republican day." Southern California joined with the northern and central districts in the campaign, that was conducted to enlighten the voters on the issue of the caucus in the Republican party for the election of the regular Republican nominee for delegates to the Republican national convention at Chicago.

The results of the day as summarized at headquarters were most gratifying to the committee and were taken as an indication that Republicans throughout the state are fully aroused to the great importance of voting for the regular ticket at the primary election next Tuesday.

The California Women's Regular Republican League has completed arrangements for a reception tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the forenoon, St. Francis Hotel, in honor of Mrs. Abbie E. Krebs, nominee for delegate at large, who has returned from a campaign in Southern California for the ticket.

CONVENTION HARMONY.
There can be no harmony in the Republican party unless real Republicans are sent to the national convention of the party," was the word sent out yesterday from the regular Republican campaign headquarters. "It is nonsense for the Earl faction to talk about harmony when they oppose a stand for the destruction of the Republican party unless the program of Governor Johnson and his Progressive party is accepted at Chicago. Governor Johnson endorsed the Earl faction and made no secret in that endorsement of his intention to help smash things open again unless his specially selected sort of candidate were nominated. That is a fair deduction from his own statement to the Earl faction, and they have accepted it by publishing Governor Johnson's declarations broadcast. The Republicans of this state are for harmony, we again assert, but we want the kind of harmony that means a settlement of the differences, not the Earl brand, which hurries threats of political revolt and disorder unless their program shall be taken."

CANVASS IN STATES CONVENTION INDEX

Party Delegate Selections Indicate Temper of Voters.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 27.—Indiana will send a well-delegated to the Republican national convention instructed to vote for Charles W. Fairbanks. Thirty delegates have been elected and it is further claimed that twenty-one out of twenty-six delegates from Kentucky have pledged themselves for the Indiana man. The first ballot called at the convention will show at least 126 votes for Fairbanks, according to estimates made here following the state election.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 27.—Theodore E. Burton, former Senator from Ohio, who is now touring the Pacific Coast, received the presidential preference at the Ohio primaries.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 27.—Senator Albert Cummins headed the ticket in the choice of Iowa for President at the election on April 19, according to figures compiled today. His vote was 40,157, Roosevelt 238, Hughes 1270 and Wood 615. President Wilson was given 31,447 votes on the Democratic ticket, Champ Clark 763, Bryan 149 and Henry Ford 42.

THRENTON, N. J., April 27.—Returns from the primary election indicate that at least one delegate favorable to Theodore Roosevelt has been elected. In two out of three Congressional districts it is apparent that unpurged delegates have been chosen.

BOSTON, April 27.—Thirty-two of the thirty-six delegates, including four delegates-at-large, will go to the Chicago convention unpledged.

NEW YORK, April 27.—J. Bruce Kruger of Buffalo, N. Y., has been appointed temporary secretary of the Democratic National convention to succeed the late Thomas J. Pence. It was announced here today.

Stockmen to Demand Changes in R. R. Rates

TOPPEKA, Kan., April 27.—A call for a national convention of stockmen in Chicago, June 6, to take up the fight on railroad rates before the Republican convention, was made today. The call is being sent out by J. H. Mercer, Kansas State sanitary livestock commissioner and secretary of the Kansas Livestock Association. It is also planned to send representatives to the Democratic convention in St. Louis on a similar mission. The call is the outcome of the recent meeting of livestock shipping interests with the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington.

One of the purposes of the proposed convention will be to set up a uniform livestock contract, agreeable to both shippers and railroads. Demands to be made are: Increase in maximum deferred value of livestock and that the Texas case concerning maximum values be reopened.

Southern Democrats in Raleigh Session

RALEIGH, S. C., April 27.—The State Democratic convention is meeting today to elect delegates and alternates to the national convention to nominate presidential electors and adopt a platform. Secretary Daniels after serving 20 years as national committeeman from North Carolina recently announced he would not serve and the party leaders were divided today on the question of a successor.

BALLOT AS DEvised IS CONFUSING ONE

Little Regard Shown to Convenience of Voters; Last 26 Regular

Perhaps never before in the history of American elections has a ballot been devised with less regard to the convenience of voters and indifference to getting the true intention of the voters on the ballot, than the Republican ballot in the Presidential preference primary next Tuesday. There are two tickets in the no preference column. One was devised by individuals to serve interests entirely outside the Republican party; the other was the outcome of an enthusiastic convention of representatives of the Republican party. In accordance with the stupid provisions of the primary law, the names of the two tickets of delegates must be appended one after the other in the same column. As the ballot has been printed, no space has been left even to indicate to the voters where one ticket ends and the other begins.

If a voter puts his cross opposite more than twenty-six names his ballot will be invalidated. In order to assist voters in marking their ballots correctly, we print below a sample of ballot. The TRIBUNE is supporting the Regular Republican convention ticket because it is the only ticket legally selected and representative of the party. We urge all Republicans to vote for that ticket. It is made up of the last twenty-six names on the ticket, printed below in black face type. Cut out this form, take it to the polls next Tuesday and mark your formal ballot accordingly.

Sample Ballot, Republican Party, May 2, 1916

Revenue Puzzle Before Committee

Raising Funds for Preparedness, Is Issue

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Methods of raising preparedness revenue which probably will be suggested to the House by the Ways and Means Committee were outlined last night by Representative Rainey of Illinois, the ranking majority member of the committee, at a preparedness dinner given here by members of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

"Income taxes, including the surtax, will be increased and taxes will be levied on whiskey, wine, beer, manufactured tobacco and munitions," Mr. Rainey said. "When these taxes are levied they will be as high as they ever can go and they never will be repealed."

"This will be a billion and a quarter dollar Congress and at the present rate of increase in the next few years every session will be a two billion dollar Congress. While you are devising ways for us to spend money, for God's sake tell us where to get it. We have to prepare and we must find more subjects for taxation."

Senator Sherman told the diners he favored universal military training and a larger navy and army.

Representative Mann, minority leader in the House, declared that this was the time "to prepare for war and remain at peace."

He added that universal military training never could be put in force in this country.

ABRAM ELKUS TO SUCCEED MORGENTHAU

WASHINGTON, April 27.—President Wilson has decided to nominate Abram Elkus to succeed Ambassador Morgenthau in Constantinople. It was learned on good authority today.

STONE TO TELL OF TALK WITH WILSON

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Chairman Stone of the Senate foreign relations committee was prepared today to lay before the committee the results of his conference with President Wilson last night regarding international problems confronting the nation.

The submarine controversy formed the point of discussion, although the Mexican situation and Japan's protest against features of the immigration bill were taken up.

The Japanese protest was up for consideration at a meeting today of the Senate immigration committee.

Export Trade Bill Before President

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Federal Trade Commission laid before President Wilson its bill permitting the use of common trade agencies abroad by American exporters and prohibiting unfair competition by the exporters. The president asked that the commission confer with the congressional leaders on the subject and take it up with him later.

He is said to be anxious that the bill which has been approved by the Department of Justice be passed as soon as possible.

The bill defines export trade and makes it mandatory that concerns engaged in export trade file with it a declaration of their intentions.

Washington Democrats Start Boom for Bryan

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 27.—Thurston county Democratic committeemen have started a movement to have William Jennings Bryan named at the State convention as a delegate to the St. Louis convention, from the State of Washington. They want to renominate their fellow Nebraskans, who recently turned him down. They will try and line up the King county (Seattle) delegation.

California Delegation Urges Oil Land Order

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Senator Phelps of California, Chas. S. Wheeler and A. T. Weil of San Francisco asked President Wilson today to support legislation pending in Congress giving patents to the claimants on oil lands in California withdrawn from entry by President Taft for naval purposes. The President promised to investigate the question.

Philippine Bill Hangs in Balance

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The fate of the Philippine independence bill hangs in the balance today as a result of the failure of the House Democratic caucus last night to reach an agreement, despite the fact that a letter was read from President Wilson strongly endorsing the measure.

The basis of another caucus tonight will be two resolutions, one pledging support for the Senate bill, without amendment, and the other a substitute which would postpone action looking to independence pending a hearing of those who would be affected by such legislation.

The debate developed a split among the Democrats which threatens the defeat of the bill in its present form. As soon as the caucus met, Representative Jones of Washington presented a resolution which, if adopted, would make the Senate Philippines bill a Democratic party measure with the endorsement of the caucus and would pledge the Democrats to put the bill through the House without amendment.

Representative Sherry of Kentucky, Coney and Fitzgerald of New York and various other members, were outspoken in their criticism of both the Philippine bill and the methods pursued by administration leaders in seeking to force it through.

The New York members asserted that the Philippine issue was not a party proposition and declared that it was not a matter to be disposed of in caucus.

Hold-Up Man Runs When Victim Bluffs

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—When Charles D. Chas. of 1515 Leavenworth street found himself looking into the barrel of a revolver in the hands of a hold-up man early this morning, he did not hesitate but with a quick motion put his hand in his back pocket and said, "I've got it on you."

The robber turned, joined a companion around the corner, and fled. The attempted hold-up occurred at Sacramento and Buchanan streets.

SCHMITZ STARTS RECALL FOR ROLPH

Former Mayor Would Remove Present One in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Eugene B. Schmitz, former mayor, head of the Schmitz Non-Partisan Alliance, announced today that recall petitions against Mayor James Rolph Jr. would be circulated immediately.

Schmitz alleges fourteen reasons why Rolph should be recalled. Among them is a claim that Rolph's election was questionable and that he holds office illegally.

The chief of police is called incompetent and it is alleged that he shows favoritism. Alleged squandering of money by city departments, failure to give schools proper fire protection and the protection of vice are also charged by Schmitz.

The Schmitz non-partisan alliance is composed of 20,000 adherents of the former mayor.

NOTICE ISSUED.

The notice of the Schmitz non-partisan alliance is as follows:

"Public notice is hereby given that on and after the ninth day of May, 1916, when James Rolph Jr., mayor of the city and county of San Francisco, shall have been in office four months, the length of time required by law, a petition will be circulated for his recall for the following reasons:

Then follows a long list, the gist of which is as follows:

That he refused to investigate charges of malfeasance against members of his administration, that he instructed the demand of Elou J. Arnold, declared illegal, be paid, by promising personal security to the auditor, that he is the cause of higher taxes through unwarranted expenditures, that departments have been permitted to squander money, that he has retained the chief of police despite the Frank Durand scandal, that he has knowingly allowed gambling houses to operate, that when the charge was made that he prevented a full and fair investigation by sending his personal attorney, Matt L. Sullivan, to fight for him.

Charges of malfeasance are made in the statement that he has connived at the payment of political debts out of the city treasury in hiring teams from political favorites for work in the Board of Public Works.

The complaint further declares that Rolph gives most of his time to private affairs, that he has neglected the public school system, that the increase of vice conditions in the heart of the retail district has been sponsored, that the construction of tunnels and boulevards to favor the large property holders was favored, others paying thereby unjust taxes, and that he has neglected the fact that the departments of the city government are running extravagantly, that dishonesty and incompetence are wasting millions, and that these facts are the basis for the alliance's request that a new executive be chosen.

CLOSE CALLS, BUT NO ZEPP DAMAGE

Aircraft Drop 100 Futile Bombs on England and Flee.

LONDON, April 27.—News published in London today indicates that not much damage was done by the four Zeppelins which visited Kent and Essex last night. Although 100 bombs were dropped by the raiders, there were no casualties. From the time when they reached the British coast the ships were kept under the beams of searchlights and were subjected to a very heavy bombardment by anti-aircraft guns, forcing them to rise to a great height and to return across the North sea.

In a straight run of two miles across one part of Essex, a dozen or more bombs were dropped, mostly in fields, while six bombs fell in the neighborhood of a farm house without doing any damage except to the crops.

There were many narrow escapes, however, in Kent. Bombs dropped all around the village. The only one that did any damage fell in the garden of a vicarage, uprooting a large tree which struck the vicar's residence.

Friend of Albert of Belgium to Visit

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—Samuel Hill, millionaire good roads apostle, has gone to France to visit King Albert of Belgium, communications received by his friends in Portland today stated. Hill has known King Albert personally for several years.

"If all goes well, I will come back. If I don't think of me kindly," Hill told his northwest friends.

SHAKESPEARE AT DEL MONTE WOMEN AS HIS CHARACTERS CLUBWOMEN SEE PAGEANTRY

(By GENE BAKER)

DEL MONTE, April 27.—Shakespeare, dressed as he appears in the Chandos portrait, together with all the characters of his plays, has been a conspicuous figure on the wide green lawns of Del Monte today, where nearly two hundred club women in masks and wigs are giving an elaborate pageant.

This spectacular event, planned by Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, who also is appearing in the role of the illustrious poet, is intended to be an expression—both democratic and artistic—of the club's interest in genius. No professional talent is taking part. It is entirely the production of women—nearly all housewives—from every part of California.

The pageant, starting at 1:30 o'clock, opened with the forming of a procession near the rose garden and following on within where the muses are led to seats of honor. The Master of Revels, Miss Jessica Lea Briggs of San Francisco, next seated the muses, while the persons of the pageant took their places at the seats. The "Dark Lady of the Sonnets" was then given.

The Alameda district took a prominent part in the presentation of the Shakespearean masque. The Romeo and Juliet Minuet, presented by the Alameda county delegation, was participated in by Mrs. J. H. Rohr, Mrs. J. H. Callen, Mrs. C. S. Gilson, Miss Mary Lambert, Mrs. Thomas G. Hunt, Mrs. J. S. McDowell, Miss L. K. Hill and Mrs. Thomas H. Judd. Scenes from "Richard III," "King Lear," "The Merchant of Venice," "Troilus and Cressida," "Othello" and other plays were given, briefly, members of the Del Monte Club of Oakland, Twentieth Century Club of Berkeley, Alameda Club of San Leandro, Hill Place Club of Alameda and several other organizations.

MRS. REINHARDT PLAYS. Shakespeare was impersonated by Mrs. George F. Reinhardt of Berkeley, the author and director of the spectacle.

In connection with the pageant the federation met at the rose garden to discuss the question of whether Shakespeare or Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays.

"We will leave that argument to the men," said Mrs. E. D. Knight, president of the federation. "We women appreciate the work too much to quibble over the authorship."

Another delegate explained that Shakespeare in the pageant was impersonated by a woman because women appreciate his works most.

Many of the participants in the play did not arrive until shortly before it was scheduled to commence. Realizing the importance of the pageant and the fact that none of the parts should be taken frivolously, most of the characters, including those of Romeo and Juliet, were assigned to members of the club.

Before the pageant started Mrs. V. E. Colby and John Chambers, state controller, spoke on community property.

The California inheritance tax on a wife's share of community property is unjust," declared Chambers.

The club women are to take immediate steps toward attacking this tax. Mrs. Colby recommended changes in the community property law which would give the woman a greater advantage than she now possesses.

GIRL EDUCATION.

State money is being spent too freely upon training the school boy and too sparsely upon the girl, according to data presented to the federation today in preparation for the drawing up of a resolution which will be for more home economic departments in the schools.

"Thousands are spent on agricultural departments which aid only the boys," declared Mrs. R. J. Herrett, secretary of the federation. "Special trains are sent out to show the work, but when it comes to the girl the money is always tight."

The resolution will be presented tomorrow.

In this connection Mrs. G. E. Chapell, president of the Little Mothers' League of Grass Valley, said that girls in that district were being taught to avoid divorce by learning how to live within their husbands' incomes when they married.

How knowledge of meat cuts may have the way to matrimony was indirectly brought out during a graphic discussion before the Federation.

That a knowledge of the price of meat may lead one away from that kitchen and into matrimony was vividly a few seconds later, with the amusement of the hundreds of clubwomen.

It was Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg of Hayward who suggested the theme when she described how the Hill and Valley club had become interested in the mysteries of meat through the kindness of an accommodating butcher. This butcher—perfectly dressed in "white flannel trousers and everything that went with them"—in her hands had demonstrated for the members just what was what of a dead, edible animal.

"I think," she added, after speaking of the benefit derived by those who had witnessed the performance, "I think that this is an idea to carry off for high school girls and older women."

But it was not to rest there, for Mrs. Robert Watt interposed in behalf of the Oakland New Century Club's domestic science classes.

"In those classes little girls of eight and ten have learned all the cuts of meat," she exclaimed. "Many of these girls are now married and we are now teaching others."

Then it was that Mrs. G. E. Chapell was requested to tell of the Little Mothers' Club of Grass Valley, in which eighty-five little girls range from 12 to 14 years of age are enrolled. Mrs. Chapell told of the instruction they had been given by trained nurses in bed-making, both for the healthy and the sick; how they had become enlightened as to sanitation and how they were to study "infant bathing" when the weather was warm enough for infants to be experimented upon. Also she prophesied that humanity and homes would profit thereby.

DON'T MARRY ON $50 PER. "And," added the Grass Valley speaker, touching on the knowledge of food values, "the members of this club have been shown that it was not advisable to marry on $50 a month."

This ended the talks on meat, but not food, since reports of the home economic department were in order. Mrs. Ella Wolfson told of how a domestic science teacher came regularly from Oakland to show the children in the San Francisco Girls' Club the art of "getting out fifteen-cent meals."

"Some of the rest of us might be interested in that fifteen-cent meal," called a voice from the floor. Mrs. D. C. immediately described remarkable fifteen-cent meals brought to certain clubs of the Southern California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Meals that cost sometimes less than fifteen cents and that were innocent of things "slipped in" from any larger.

All this eager comparing of notes inspired by a report from Miss Maud Le Marchant of the home economics department ended with a demand from Mrs. H. E. De Nysse, who strongly favored emphasis of home economics, that the clubs put the best looking women" at the head of the parade.

The right of the country student to a school equal to one in the city, the hardships of the country school teacher, and the necessity of better roads in rural districts followed, introduced by a speech from Miss Lillian D. Clark in which she urged "better roads" and "better conditions" in order to keep human standards high "on the farm." Open-air meetings and night schools were suggested for the thorough discussion of amendments that will be voted upon Friday morning.

Interest won out as the delegates from far parts of the State told what women were doing there to improve their communities.

One spoke of women with the souls of poets who were hidden away in the country districts—not to mention other women who valiantly prevented a group of hardened school trustees more interested in the happenings of boys than of girls from backing down to the school yard, to make a baseball diamond.

VOTE TO THE PRESS.

Miss Martha M. Trimble, the club commissioner, aroused sympathy for the country teacher by enumerating her troubles. "She has never a chance for an individuality; she never has any privacy; she has to accept any kind of a room and she often has to walk farther than is good for her health when she goes to her school."

Miss Trimble believed that teachers' cottages giving them "homes" would result in better teachers and greater efficiency.

Suggestions from Dr. Louise Harvey Clarke advising "wider and more discriminating use of the press" followed, introducing a plea from Miss Dorothy Willis, a Los Angeles newspaper woman, for co-operation between the club women and the press.

Applause—which constitutes a breaking of the convention rules—greeted this speech and the entire audience paid tribute to the press in a standing vote.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by Mrs. Fisher Clark, president of the Alameda district and chairman of the committee. It lists Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight for a second term as president, but names two candidates for the office of vice-president in the person of the incumbent, Mrs. A. Jones, and Mrs. E. F. Walton, at present state corresponding secretary.

Others presented were: Vice-president at large, Mrs. L. B. Hogie; recording secretary, Mrs. A. R. McCullough; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carrie Avery; treasurer, Mrs. Andrew Leonard of Oakland.

A resolution from the California State Agricultural Society that the C. F. W. C. co-operate in preparing a program for the dedication of the new women's building at the Sacramento State Fair opening in September was read just before this finale.

BRITISH NOTE IS NOT SURPRISING

English Diplomats Believe Trade Interference Controversy Ended.

LONDON, April 27.—The contents of the British note replying to the protest of the American government against interference with neutral trade, which asserts the right of Great Britain to regulate to the admission to a neutral country of goods evidently destined for the enemy, caused little surprise in diplomatic and legal circles here, as its conclusions were in line with the general decisions of the prize tribunals. A summary of the views of the members of these circles may be explained as follows:

They do not believe the controversy will be carried much further during the progress of the war, as no vital concessions have been made by either side since the first note was written. Therefore the shippers of detained cargoes who can afford the delay will await the conclusion of the war to have their claims settled by an international tribunal in the belief that such a court will grant them full damages. It is expected that the United States government will soon send two notes to Great Britain, one on the detention of the mails and the other on removal of the blockade of Germany from the steamship China.

The British government has consented to the purchase of the Wagner steamships by an American company on condition that the buyers lease the vessels on a time charter to an English company.

A final effort will be made to settle the Wilhelmshaven case without submitting the question to Baron Mersey. The foreign office is expected to submit to Ambassador Page today its terms in this case.

The British reply to the American note protesting against the British blockade on shipments of goods to neutral countries contended that it is within the spirit of international law to limit imports into a neutral country of goods that might be of use to Germany and Austria to the amount normally consumed by the neutrals. It argued that the right to search vessels approaching the neutral country is an incident to this restriction.

The Wagner steamships referred to are evidently those of the American Trans-Atlantic Company, of which Richard G. Wagner is president. These vessels were admitted to American registry in July, 1915, but were placed on the British blacklist on suspicion that they were controlled by German capital. Several of the vessels were seized by the British government and this action was the cause of a strong protest by Ambassador Page on behalf of the United States.

The cargo of the American steamship Wilhelmshaven, which sailed from New York for Hamburg with food in January, 1915, was seized by the British authorities. Baron Mersey was appointed to fix the amount to be paid to the owners.

The British diver is sent to bottom.

London Claims Germans Have Sunk More Neutral Ships.

LONDON, April 27.—The British submarine E-23 has been sunk in the North Sea, the admiralty announced today. Only two of the crew were saved.

The E-22 was one of Britain's newest submarines and probably carried twenty or thirty men.

BERLIN, April 27.—The German admiralty announced today that the British submarine E-23 has been sunk by German naval forces. The announcement also says a British cruiser of the Arcturion type was hit by a torpedo from a German submarine.

LONDON, April 27.—The sinking of a neutral vessel by gunfire from a German submarine was announced officially today.

The Norwegian bark Carmanian was destroyed and a boat containing part of her crew capsized.

COPENHAGEN, April 27.—The Norwegian steamer Strommaas, bound for Lubeck with a cargo of herring from Norway, has been blown up and sunk off Glad, Denmark. The crew was landed at Warnemunde, Germany.

ROTTERDAM, April 27.—The Dutch steamship Maasbaven struck a mine yesterday while bound from London for this port. A tug carrying the survivors arrived at Waterweg today.

LONDON, April 27.—A dispatch to Lloyd's shipping agency says that the Dutch steamships Dubbeke and Maasbaven have been damaged but are still afloat.

San Diego May Win
Police Chief Session

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—That San Diego may be chosen as the 1917 meeting place for the International Association of Chiefs of Police was indicated in a letter received by Mayor Sebastian today from Police Commissioner N. T. Goodrich, who is a leader in the police chiefs' organization, enclosed a copy of a letter mailed to other cities suggesting California as the next meeting place for the police heads. Goodrich urged that San Diego be given the convention.

Rabbit Chase Is Stopped by Officers

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The police today stopped an attempt to have the exhibition of rabbit coursing at the Golden Gate show. It had been planned to have Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl's pack of Beagles chase and kill ten rabbits. It was declared to be against the humane laws.

GREAT WOOLEN PLANT COMES TO OAKLAND

$500,000 Manufacturing Selects City
Site for Big Factory

Announcement of the acquisition for Oakland of one of the most important industries in the history of the city was made this morning when former Mayor Frank K. Mott made public the fact that a great woolen plant, to be known as the Oakland Textile Manufacturing Company, is to be started in this city within a short time.

The new plant, to be erected at a cost of $500,000 and financed by a prominent eastern capital, will be situated at the foot of Seminary avenue, adjacent to Bungalow Park tract. It will employ 500 workmen, manufacture men's and women's woolen, serge and worsted goods, robes, steamer rugs and other textiles, using the California raw wool supply now sent to be manufactured.

The establishment of this big plant, backed, as it is, by big eastern capitalists, is expected to make Oakland the wool-buying and distributing center of the state.

GOSSIN IS HEAD.

The head of the organization is William G. Gossin of Portland, who has been in Oakland in consultation with the Frank Mott Company, for some time prior to the announcement of the location of the new plant.

"There were three factors of importance that swung this for Oakland," said Gossin. "First, the accessibility of rail and water facilities; second, the electric power easily obtained, and the third, and very important factor, the extremely low price of the land. Gossin had investigated many cities, but Oakland's three factors swung the deal. The very things I preached while I was mayor have come true and Oakland is coming now into her own, as I said she would in the old days."

OPENS FACTORY DISTRICT.

The establishment of this big factory opens up a vast factory district available in this neighborhood, where land is low in price, where connections can be made with the Southern and Western Pacific, and where water front connections are also accessible. Electric power is cheap, plentiful and easily obtained also in this district, and beside it is a residence tract suitable for the homes of workers.

A notable feature, now connected with one of the largest woolen mills of the East, is to take charge of the new factory, which will be of modern steel construction. The company, incorporated for $500,000, was named after Oakland on Mott's suggestion. It will be a joint venture of the Mott Company and the Oakland Textile Manufacturing Company.

Large quantities of raw materials are produced in this state at the present time and sent to eastern factories. Eliminating this charge of freight will enable the new company to cut down the price of goods to a large extent, placing the firm in an exceptional position for Oriental and coast trade as well as for canal trade. Work will start on the new plant as soon as possible.

Actor's Wife Goes; He Asks Search

Following a quarrel with her husband, Lymna Wood, who is appearing at a local theater, Mrs. Charles Wood left the Hotel Adams, and has not been seen since. Wood notified the police and has asked that the police be made for his wife, as he fears some mischief may have befallen her. Mrs. Wood is described as 20 years of age, five feet in height, weighing 135 pounds, a blonde, with blue eyes and fair hair.

Mrs. Wood was seen last night at her home, 9083 Broadway avenue, where she was with her son, Winfield Upson, who left home yesterday morning. Mrs. Upson fears the youth, who is only 14 years old, has attempted to throw away on some vessel leaving San Francisco, as he had spoken of a craving to go to sea.

Road House Owners Placed Under Arrest

MARTINEZ, April 27.—Warrants charging violation by six roadhouses of the county liquor ordinance by keeping open after midnight, were sworn out by District Attorney T. D. Johnston, and the warrants were served this evening by Constable C. H. Palmer.

The roadhouses are located on the road from here to Oakland, and are the Grand Canyon, Chateau, Sullivan's, Six Bells, Logan's, the Tavern and the Panama Pacific. Evidence against these places is said to have been secured by Deputy Sheriff Jesse of Oakland. Jesse said that he could not gain admittance to the places after midnight unless he was accompanied by a woman.

Los Angeles Street Dept. in Graft Row

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Charges that the city of Los Angeles has lost between $600,000 and $1,000,000 through faulty inspecting of paved streets were hurled in the city council chamber today by Councilman Wheeler.

Wheeler stated that he had affidavits proving that inspectors, while working for the city, had been receiving $5 a day from a paving concern.

McMANIGAL TELLS OF BOMB MAKING

Demonstration Made Before Jury in Caplan Case.

LOS ANGELES, April 27.—Bomb making was demonstrated before the jury in the trial for murder of David Caplan, alleged accomplice in the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building more than five years ago, when Orrie E. McManigal, who turned state's evidence in the case, continued his story of the alleged national conspiracy of destruction in which McManigal confessed he took part.

Attorneys for the prosecution and McManigal showed how the winding key of a small alarm clock was used to close the electric battery circuit and detonate a fuming cap and cause an explosion. The clock used was one taken from a bomb which failed to explode.

McManigal told also of the unexplained disappearance of explosives scattered in piles of tin cans which caused him to realize that his career on the alleged iron workers' "interning committee" was about ended.

One of the last "jobs," he testified, was ordered by John J. Hammari, former secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, now serving a sentence in San Quentin penitentiary for aiding an explosion at the Llewellyn Iron Works here on Christmas, 1910. The order was to cause six or seven explosions, or as many as possible, at Pomona. McManigal testified. Consequently he made several trips, carrying in all 30 quarts of nitro-glycerine from Indianapolis to Pomona, where he secreted it in an orchard.

Civil Service for Playgrounds, Plan

Civil service is to be introduced into the playground department of the city. If a request from Mayor John L. Davis transmitted to the recreation commission is carried into effect, the board has so far said favorably upon the Mayor's recommendation that it has called a session with the civil service board to consider having a survey made of the department with a view to the introduction of civil service and efficiency ratings. The recreation department will be the last of the board to accept civil service.

FACTORY SURVEY TO MAY COUNTRY

Mobilization of Industrial Capabilities of United States Is Planned.

That the United States Government is planning to mobilize its factory resources, to encourage greater accuracy and finer work among American mechanics, and prepare this nation for greater efficiency in production, was the statement of W. E. Dickie, newly appointed member of the national board of survey, who yesterday addressed the manufacturers' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

One of the first works of the board, he declared, would be in the direction of the manufacture of contour maps of the state, these to cover the entire coast, and furnish every possible fact for army or other uses.

He also spoke of the need of better workmanship and more accuracy in the factories.

"For instance," he said, "in certain types of ammunition it is necessary to turn a shell to size within one thousandth of an inch. I doubt if there are more than one or two factories in the whole country capable of such accuracy."

John Phillips, chairman of the bureau, presided at the meeting.

City Hall Will Be Bruges Restored

Women to Market for Belgians

Oakland's City Hall square will be transformed into a replica of the old market place of Bruges, with its queer stalls and shops, for the Belgian market, to be held for the benefit of the war-stricken Belgians on May 5, when society women will sell household goods, novelties and all manner of articles for charity. Belgian flags will create a riot of color about the "market place," and 300 society women will be in charge of the thirty or more booths of the market.

Final plans are now being rushed to completion by Mrs. L. R. Webster, secretary of the committee, Mrs. William Williamson, the story that Miss Elbet Moore, Miss Annie Florence Brown and others.

Some of the society women will cook for the charity and some will ransack their country homes for flowers or fruits. The public has been invited to offer articles for the sale. Mrs. Williamson to keep open her offices in the Federal Realty building to receive donations.

Sportsmen to Hunt American Camels

RIVERSIDE, April 27.—A party of sportsmen left here today for the southern reaches of the San Jacinto mountains to hunt American camels. E. C. Beach, a prospector, brought the story that a drove of fifteen camels was seen within a few miles of Salton Sea, at the base of the San Jacintos. The camels were introduced for desert travel more than half a century ago, and when the venture was given up the animals were left to shift for themselves.

TALK ASSOCIATION TO FRUIT GROWERS

Alameda County Men Will Be Interviewed in Regard to Organization.

HAYWARD, April 27.—Fruit growers in Alameda county will be interviewed in regard to the proposal to form a branch of the Prune and Apple Growers' Association, which will be formed in this end of the state. This step was decided upon at a recent meeting of prune and apple orchardists in Hayward, held to discuss the formation of a county branch of the organization.

Two fruit growers from Hayward, Mr. Eden, San Leandro and Niles, attended the meeting as well as J. H. Bone, George E. Merrill, chairman and secretary respectively of the Prune and Apple Growers' information bureau, and Mark Grimes, fruit grower, all of San Jose.

Al. J. Madison was elected chairman of the meeting. He spoke briefly of the purpose of the meeting and introduced J. H. Bone, who related the history of the Prune and Apple Growers' information bureau and of events which have led up to the present plan to form an association. G. E. Merrill followed with an explanation of the aims of the proposed organization. Mark Grimes spoke on the fruit situation.

The meeting appointed a committee of ten to interview fruit growers in Alameda county to learn whether they would be willing to join the association. It was decided to call a large meeting of fruit growers at an early date.

Following is the committee of ten: E. K. Strohbridge, Hayward; J. H. Parsons, Castro Valley; Frank Dennis, Mt. Eden; W. H. Meek, San Leandro; L. P. Rieger, San Leandro; P. B. Granger, San Jose; Thomas F. Moore, Niles; A. Garcia, Niles; Thomas H. Harty, Irvington.

Munster Men Will Hold Celebration

A free barbecue and exhibition of old Irish dances will be features at the annual celebration of the Munster Men's Association of San Francisco, which is to be held at Glen Park, San Francisco, on Sunday, May 7.

An elaborate musical program is being arranged and there will also be a number of regulation horse races and Irish games.

Dr. J. C. Quinn is chairman of the committee of arrangements, with Daniel Quinn, recording secretary, and Joseph Donovan, financial secretary. The other members of the committee are: William Kearney, John Donovan, P. H. McCarthy, James Whelan, P. J. Kelly, J. J. O'Connell, T. F. O'Dowd, P. J. Barry, Lawrence Barry, Wm. Boyle, Patrick O'Neill, John Turner, Wm. O'Donnell, Cornelius Lynch and William O'Reilly.

Death and Ruin Follows Severe Portland Storm

PORTLAND, Ore., April 27.—One life was lost, two persons were injured and three buildings were damaged as results of a severe thunderstorm, caused by wind and rain that swept over Portland late yesterday.

The fatality was that of Roland Doucette, aged 5, who was killed in his parents' home when a fireplace mantle, loosened by the storm, fell and crushed him. His sister, Leota, aged 4, who was with him, was badly injured, but it was said tonight she would recover.

In another part of the city T. Sumida, a Japanese janitor in an apartment house, was seriously injured while stoking the furnace by a thunder bolt which traveled down the chimney. In still another section of an apartment house and created considerable damage, including the disabling of the elevator.

Hayward Militia to Give Annual Ball

HAYWARD, April 27.—Members of Company H, Fifth Infantry, National Guard, will hold their seventh anniversary ball at armory Saturday evening. The grand march will be led by Lieutenant Colonel George Watters, Fifth Infantry. Among the visitors will be Colonel J. J. Adjutant General.

There are only seven original members left in Company H who signed the muster roll seven years ago. They are Colonel J. J. Borce, who was the first captain of Company H; Color Sergeant N. W. Armstrong, Fifth Infantry, who was the youngest member to enlist when Company H was organized; Captain H. A. Bradshaw; Sergeant E. Branner; Sergeant Borce; Arthur Tupper; and Private Van Dyke. Arrangements are being made to entertain several hundred people. The committee in charge is composed of Sergeant Robert Brink, Corporal A. Arens, Private Frank Brink, Private Rodney Brown and Private G. C. Van Dyke.

John Doe Warrants in Car Robbery

MARTINEZ, April 27.—Henry Bennebeck, Oakland taxicab driver, arrested several days ago on a charge of assisting in the $1500 robbery at the Richmond car barns, is now in the Martinez jail awaiting $10,000 bonds or $5000 cash bail. The arrest of Bennebeck followed his release when the judge learned that he was the machine that bore the banquets to the car barns on the morning of the hold-up.

Three "John Doe" warrants in connection with the robbery are in the hands of Sheriff H. R. Eide, and it is declared that the men wanted have been located. The sheriff's office refuses to discuss the case.

TOPEKA MOB AT DOORS OF PRISON

Infuriated Citizens Would Lynch Man Charged With Assault.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 27.—An attempt on the part of the mob formed in Topeka last night to lynch Fred Bissell at Lawrence, where he had been taken for safe-keeping, failed through the prompt action of State and county officials, who caused the prisoner to be taken from jail and hurried away in an automobile. Bissell is charged with assaulting and murdering Edna Dinsmore, a 10-year-old girl, who was found in a burning vacant house in Topeka yesterday morning.

When knowledge of the departure of the mob in automobiles reached Governor Arthur Capper last night, the Governor at once sent a message to Sheriff Cummings of Topeka county, urging that Bissell be removed to evade the lynchers. He advised that he be taken to Lansing to the State Penitentiary until the time for his trial.

Sheriff Cummings of Topeka, who was in Lawrence to serve a warrant on Bissell, immediately took charge of the prisoner and, accompanied by deputies, left the city in a large touring car, according to advice from that place. It is believed he started for Lansing.

About the time the would-be lynchers left here for Lawrence another mob stormed the county jail under the belief that Bissell had been taken from there. Officers addressed them and finally a committee of citizens was appointed to examine the jail to prove that Bissell was not there. The committee's report satisfied the mob and in a short time the crowd quietly dispersed.

Church Street Line to Run Down Market

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Action taken by the mayor and supervisors yesterday will precipitate in the courts an action to decide the right of the city to parallel the United Railroads in Market street. The Board of Works was authorized in two general resolutions to start work that will raise the issues between the company and the city. These resolutions are:

"To connect the municipal line on Church street with the Van Ness avenue line by a connection with the United Railroads in Church street, thence down Market street to Van Ness."

"To begin building a parallel set of tracks on the outside of the United Railroads' tracks from the eastern portal of the Twin Peaks tunnel down Market street to the ferries."

Try This if You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; let it gently with the finger tips. By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

TOO WEAK TO FIGHT

The "Come-back" man was really never weak, but he was in a bad condition because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living demands stimulating to satisfy the cry for a health-giving tonic and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Hawaiian Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do the work. They are wonderful. Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it; whether his troubles come from indigestion, the indigestion, general debility, or other ailments that befall the man who is overworked and overtaxed, they are entirely down-and-out, but take them today. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if they do not help you. Use one and it will be a fact. They are not substitutes. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on every box. They are the original, imported Hawaiian Oil Capsules. Guaranteed and sold by The Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Vessels Await Strike Settlement in Alaska

SEWARD, Alaska, April 27.—Owing to the strike of railroad laborers, the steamers Anoline and Admiral Farragut, with stores and supplies for the Alaska Railroad Commission, did not come into port here on their arrival yesterday. The vessels are anchored today off Fire Island. The federal labor union has declined to unload the vessels until the strike is settled.

HOWS OUT OF JAIL.

SAN JOSE, April 27.—D. M. Harrington, accused of wife-beating, escaped from the county jail yesterday. Harrington was placed in an ante-room and when the turnkey was away he walked to the door, asked playing the role of a visitor, asked to leave. Another deputy released Harrington and he walked out of jail. His absence was not discovered for nearly an hour.

BACKACHE, PAIN IN SIDE, RHEUMATISM

Dear Mr. Editor:

For a long time I suffered from backache, pain in left side, frequent urination (bothering me at all times during the day and night), and the urine acid in my blood caused me to suffer from rheumatism along with a constant tired, worn-out feeling. I was told of the new discovery of Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., called "Anurio," and obtaining these tablets I at once began their use. After giving "Anurio" a good trial I believe it to be the best kidney remedy on the market today. I have tried other kidney medicines, but these "Anurio Tablets" of Dr. Pierce's are the only ones, in my opinion, that will cure kidney and bladder troubles.

(Signed) HENRY A. LOVE.

Note:—Experiments at Dr. Pierce's Hospital for several years proved that "Anurio" is 37 times more active

Grandpa to 27; 'Dad' to Four 7 Great Grandchildren Complete List

LIVERMORE, April 27.—Twenty-seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren besides three sons and one daughter, survive Manuel Alcaraz, pioneer resident of Livermore, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Higgins, in Oakland, April 21.

Alcaraz spent most of his life in Livermore, coming to Oakland two years ago. He was born in Alvarado July 7, 1841, and was the son of one of the first Spanish settlers.

Besides his wife he was survived by a family consisting of Frank and Louis Alcaraz of Livermore, M. J. Alcaraz of Oakland, also two sisters, Mrs. D. Bragley of Tracy and Mrs. J. Dunn of Oakland.

The funeral took place at the Catholic cemetery.

Social Workers Plan to Defend Activities

INDIANAPOLIS, April 27.—The National Conference of Charities and Correction at its forty-third annual meeting at Indianapolis May 10-17 expects to meet the charge that work for the submerged classes is a waste of energy. The program for the 125 speakers, their age about 3000 men and women engaged in professional social work in New York and Chicago.

A defense of organized social work will be the illustrations the Indianapolis program furnishes of the new science of social engineering.

Allen T. Burns, of the Cleveland Foundation, which is said to have accumulated within its first year about $50,000, will speak on the "Organization of Community Resources."

The science and value of social surveys will be described by Shelby M. Harrison, of the Russell Sage Foundation and Robert S. Binkard of the New York City Club.

Co-ordination of civic efforts in small communities will be the topic of a symposium arranged by Mrs. Ada Elliot Sheffield of Boston.

This conference of 3000 social workers is considering changing its name. It is argued that "charities and correction" no longer describe the main objects of social work, which are preventive.

Art Collection to Be Sold in New York

NEW YORK, April 27.—A collection of old masters that once belonged to Prince Goltshchikoff-Koutousoff, a Russian secretary to the Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna, Winter Palace, Petrograd is to be sold at the Plaza here today.

The collection is valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Mr. Nicolas Ribouchinsky, of Moscow, a wealthy man, bought the collection of Prince Goltshchikoff-Koutousoff. Mr. Ribouchinsky is in New York in the service of his country in matters connected with the purchase of war supplies.

He has discovered that in this land of Bethlehem, U. S. Crucible and other "war brides," works of art sell at much higher prices than they do on the Continent. That is why the former Goltshchikoff-Koutousoff collection of paintings will be placed on sale.

The Eremitage, Petrograd, is one of the great public collections of the world. Mr. Ribouchinsky's collection is catalogued as containing old masters "of the Northern and Southern schools," that is, paintings by masters of the Low Countries and Germany, and by those of France and Italy.

The Fleming Hugo van der Goes, is represented in the catalogue by an altar panel, "Flight into Egypt," and there is another panel by the Flemish artist Gerard van der Meere.

There are more than 500 items in the collection. Several Van Dycks are included.

New Orleans Is Invaded by Nurses

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 27.—The functions of the nurse in the public health movement are to be discussed at the convention of the National Organization for Public Health Nursing here today.

This convention is held jointly with those of the American Nurses' Association and the National League of Nursing Education. The keynote of the meeting is "Health Is a Public, Not a Personal Problem."

The section devoted to the consideration of public health nursing under government control sounds the keynote. This will be presided over by Dr. Oscar Dowling of Louisiana, Dr. Patterson of Ohio State Board of Health, Mrs. Sirch of California, Dr. Terry of Jacksonville and Mrs. Parsons of San Antonio.

The meeting on school nursing, arranged by Link Rogers Struthers, the first school nurse in America, will take up the subject of open air schools and tuberculosis among school children. The program includes papers by Dr. Ennett of Richmond and Dr. Atkins of Toronto, Michael Davis Jr. of Boston, Fannie F. Clement, Dr. J. H. Kelly of Massachusetts, Dr. Hoffman of Chicago, Alice Hall of Providence and Alice Paulsen of Chicago.

Auto Dealers to See Speed Demonstrations

Particular interest centers in the tire changing, automobile assembling, vulcanizing and welding contests which will be held on the Auditorium stage Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

The most expert mechanics of the leading Oakland automobile dealers have been entered in the contests. Gene Soto, who won the cup at the recent contest at the Orpheum Theater, will be among the fifteen contestants to try again. The cup will not become the property of any one until it has been won three times, the coming contest being the second time it is to be contested for.

Clifford Perry, Frank Hamilton, John Meier and Bob Letourneur, other expert workmen, are to take part in the tire-changing contest. This contest promises to be one of the biggest features on Friday's program and a large attendance of automobile enthusiasts is expected to be on hand to cheer on their favorites.

Oregon Town Fire Does $15,000 Damage

SALEM, Ore., April 27.—Fire starting early this morning did damage estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000 in the business district of Hubbard. The fire started in a moving picture house and burned the most of the west side of the Main street business district. Fire apparatus from Woodburn prevented the fire from doing further damage.

PERCY AND FERDIE---Who Said Friday Wasn't an Unlucky Day?

Frankie Denny Goes Up Against Ortega Tonight Mexican Enters Twenty-Sixth Ring Encounter Unprecedented

Frankie Denny may not defeat Battling Ortega at the Wheelman Club tonight, but if he should succeed he will have accomplished something of which he may well feel proud. Ortega is the Bay City middleweight champion, and if one could want to stretch the point a bit, he can be rightfully termed the Pacific Coast champion.

The fact that Ortega is undefeated after twenty-five straight contests, and has trounced the best boys at his weight the matchmakers have been able to get, is enough to command for him wholesome respect anywhere. Among Ortega's victims are Frankie Jones, San Francisco middleweight, who held Bob McAllister to a draw; Stanley Jones, Spokane welterweight; Joe Ferro, "Spud" Murphy, Eddy Fitzgerald, representing the cream of the San Francisco middleweight contingent, and Jimmy Jones, Jack Fitz, who has been a host of other mid-weighters, who have all been decisively licked by this remarkable Mexican champion.

DENNY HAS A CHANCE

"Dope" and past performance makes the Battling a cinch to win tonight, but there are more than a few little experts who figure that Denny has more than an outside chance of winning. Ever since he jumped into the ring at a moment's notice about a year and a half ago and came from behind and dropped Young Joe Rivers to the mat at the Wheelman Club, Denny has been known as the possessor of one of the hardest wallops of any of the late now performing here. Denny and all his admirers feel sure that if he ever brings this wallop over on his opponent, the "Mex" is surely going to feel it.

Frankie has been training his hardest at Cliff Wilson's headquarters to get into shape for the bout. Training in the past was Denny's weakness. He hated that work as much as one "Dum" does. Denny hates to admit that one of his fighters got beat. And that's going some. However, Denny realizes that his showing tonight will mean either that he will restore himself into the favor of the fans as was the case when he started out, or else he will have to step back into the second-rate class, or give up the game entirely. The old adage says that Mr. John Opportunity knocks at the door but only if that's the case, Denny's chance of making good is tonight. Whether he will take advantage of it remains to be seen.

Though the Ortega-Denny bout is attracting lots of attention, the fans are not forgetting that Pete Davis and Billy Alveris, 125-pounders, are on the bill. This pair provided a whitening scrap last week, the opinion as to who was entitled to the verdict being undecided. Davis has been training hard of late and thinks he will win tonight. Alveris is just as optimistic, too, so the bout figures to be peppy.

Harry O'Keefe, Richmond welter, who possesses a remarkable amount of offensive class, but unfortunately, a "wind-up-punch" law, will attempt to put a dent in Jack Davis' winning streak. The fighting conductor has been going great guns of late and hopes to get a crack at the winner of the Davis-Alveris bout. O'Keefe will outwrestle Jack by almost fifteen pounds, which appears to be a poor bit of match-making, but, nevertheless, the odds are in his favor, even with the weight handicap.

Jim Phillips, Lou Bernstein's pet, will try conclusions with one Joe Reim. Jack Murphy, who has been known as the "Dum" in all respects, especially in his manner of fighting.

There will be five other bouts, bringing together the class of the local amateur brigade. Jack Murphy states that every bout will be a regular hum-dinger, and with the old prices prevailing, he expects a banner house.

TECH'S HOPES FOR TRACK TITLE ARE BADLY SHATTERED

Broad Jump Champion Barred, and Distance Star Is Threatened.

Oakland Technical High School's chances of winning the A. C. A. L. track meet for the first time in the school's history on Saturday went aglimmering yesterday when it was announced that Guy Calden, sprinting and broad-jump champion of the county, Mue, hurdler, and possibly a state distance runner, have been barred from further track competition this year.

Calden was placed under the ban owing to the fact that he has attended high school five years. Guy started school at Oakland High in all of 1911, when he was out of school, and as every athlete is entitled to four years of athletic eligibility, Calden was looked upon as ineligible. However, the A. C. A. L. officials refused to allow his claim. Due to it, Calden was barred from the meet.

Practically on the fence, Coach Thorburn of Tech, however, believes that Silvas may be allowed to compete. Hutchinson, sprinting demon, will now be depended upon by Tech followers to make up for the lost points. "Hutch" has been in the 100 and 200 yard races, while Johnny Black will endeavor to score points in the 400 yard race. With Silvas, Hutchinson and Eugene gone, Tech will be practically robbed of 20 points.

BILLIARDS

The game at the Oakland billiard parlors tonight will be between Puma and Hoover. Last evening there was no game owing to the fact that Millwright has been called out of town and will not be able to finish out the tournament. This makes the affair will be finished out with eight players instead of ten. Victor Condon will furnish the amusement to-morrow night. Karns will play a bye on Friday.

The games are of a high order. The players are earnest and skillful and so far are playing a real pool class has been seen in this neck of the woods for some time.

Ora Morningstar came to life in San Diego the other night in an exhibition game with a player from New York by the name of Rialto. He was supposed to play Blake 1200 to 1200 but succeeded in keeping his opponent down to 436. Morningstar made a high run of 509 and an average of 150 for 800 points on the night that he did it. Owing to the fact that the games were only exhibitions, neither the run nor the average would count for anything in the records. But it is some billiards just the same.

Cassagnol died in New York yesterday. The game of billiards loses one of the brightest lights. He has known French players. He was considered by many to have more than a good chance to take Europe into camp. At any rate, he was being groomed to meet Hoppe and was playing really the billiards. Franco has been in the game since he was a boy and was among the best that she has offered.

Solomon retains the championship of the State of Washington at the game of three cushions by his defeat of Art Seymour in Spokane. He takes first place and the title in the tournament the Spokane Athletic club has been running.

In September, 1843, two men, named Lafont and Melant, in the commune of Lafont, France, quarreled over a billiard game, and the result agreed to fight a duel in which a real billiard ball was to be the weapon. Lots were drawn to see who would play first, and Lafont was favored and threw with much speed and aim that Lafont, struck on the temple, fell dead.

What is probably the biggest tournament on record is now being conducted by the Spokane Review, the big newspaper in the northwest. They have entered to play pocket billiards. The entries are divided among seventeen rooms. Each room will work out its own champion and then the room champions will meet in a tournament to decide who is the best. A great deal of interest is being taken.

BOWLING

The Oakland Elks won three straight games from the San Mateo Elks in the Elks' last night on the 10th street alleys. Waiting of the San Mateo team was high with 162-3 pin average for three games. BOWLERS SET UP HIGH SCORES. SPARKLE, Wash., April 27.—Some good individual games were rolled last night in the Northwest International Bowling tournament, but the seven teams failed to remove the Bush and Lane quibbler from the lead in that event. Reuben, the Elks' Club team, set a new high game mark last night when he rolled 237.

The Everett quibbler came nearest to upsetting the Bush-Lane score on April 26, by rolling 269. The Brunswick-Elks team was two points behind the Everett five.

NORTHWESTERN WILL START TODAY

SEATTLE, Wash., April 27.—The Northwest League baseball season of 1916 will begin today with two new towns. Butte and Great Falls represented in place of Victoria and Aberdeen, which were dropped last year. The opening games will be: Butte at Seattle, Vancouver at Spokane, Great Falls at Tacoma.

CARDS AFTER FUND FOR CREW

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 27.—Not over anxious to leave their shell "in look" pending the settlement of bills, as was the case at Poughkeepsie last year, a campaign has been started here to raise the necessary $7500 to send the crew men East this summer. A canvas of the university will be made and a contribution solicited from every student, men and women alike. The committee having charge of the campaign to raise the sum consists of Graduate Manager Hehrns; "Feg" Murray, 1916 track captain; Frank Captain-elft Augerle; W. H. Hoover, crew manager; and Crew Captain "Chick" Orme.

PENN HOLDS ANNUAL TRACK MEET. PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—If the weather proves favorable, several world's records are expected to fall in Pennsylvania's twenty-second annual relay carnival, which opens tomorrow. Many of the big eastern universities have entered formidable teams and some of the speediest track men in the country will compete.

FULTON READY FOR REICH. NEW YORK, April 27.—Ready for his fight with Al Reich tomorrow, Fred Fulton knocked off training today. When he stepped into the ring after a hard day of work Fulton weighed 217 pounds.

Harold Elliott, the Coast's Miracle Man All North Will Be Pulling for the Oaks This Season

Harold Elliott, the "Billiken of the Coast League," has pulled a George Stallings. He is the miracle man of the west. After three years of misfortune, Oakland has achieved a real ball club. Out of the depths of inefficiency and mismanagement, the Oaks have been lifted to the pinnacle of popularity. The miracle has been performed under our very eyes, and without the use of a fortune, the usual means of accomplishing modern "tricks."

Elliott has not wasted a nickel of the Oakland club's money. He got no help from the depths of popularity. The miracle has been performed under our very eyes, and without the use of a fortune, the usual means of accomplishing modern "tricks."

McCreddie, when he wants five players, buys fifteen and takes a chance that some of them will make good. Men like Volverson and Frank Chance open the purse strings and bankrupt the club to a few high salaried stars from the big tent.

It remained for Harold Elliott to put one over on the big boys by outwitting them in the strengthening of the Oaks. Luck, of course, played its part, but luck always favors the intelligent man rather than the sheer gambler.

The Oaks are today leading the league, having whipped Salt Lake, trounced Portland, lost to Varnum as the result of two wild pitches, and now they have taken the first two games from Los Angeles, reputed as the class of the league.

Up and down the circuit, the scribbles are beginning to wake up and rub their eyes. Memories of 1915 are recalled, and there is a general feeling over the circuit that the Fighting Oaks are due for another pennant. It's the old Oakland spirit at work again. The public feels it, the players feel it, it is in the air. Oakland is going to win the pennant!

There were only two elements of doubt in Elliott's mind when the season started.

"I don't know whether my pitchers will get going," said Harold, "and I don't know about this chap Barry. He will either be a star, or a bum."

Well, the pitchers got going right off the reel, and Al Barry proved himself a star of the first water. Elliott is satisfied.

"I have the best club in the league, and barring mishaps, we will win the flag. This is my own verdict."

There is not likely to be any misfortune about the Oaks. The luck is due to change. For three years the Oaks were the orphans of the league, but now they are coming into their own with a vengeance. Nothing to lose and everything to win. That's what started the Boston Braves on their historic hill climb.

And let us tell you, that Seal fans this year will be much more than the Seal fans of last year. MISS MARIAN KERGAN, ONE OF THE SOCIETY "CANDY GIRLS" AT THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE CARD PARTY THIS AFTERNOON

Most of the bridge players of society were gathered in the ivory ballroom of Hotel Oakland this afternoon for the annual card party of the Woman's Exchange. There were over ninety tables filled during the games. A group of pretty girls sold candy, from golden baskets, and in their light gowns added a gala note to the party. Miss Frances Du Val had asked a number of her classmates at Miss Horton's school to be candy girls, and among them were, Miss Marian Kergan, Miss Ruth Hile, Miss Margaret Bredehoe, Miss Ruth Clark and Miss Helen Hawley.

After the games, the same group of girls passed the prizes which were awarded for the highest score at each table. They were dainty ribbon trays for the dressing table, and in all the colors of the rainbow, so that the distribution of prizes was a colorful ceremony. Later many parties were formed for tea in the lounge where flower trimmed tables filled one end of the room. Among those who had guests at tea were Mrs. George Hammer, who entertained Mrs. Harrison Clay, Mrs. Arthur G. Brown, Mrs. A. S. Macdonald, Mrs. J. R. Burns, Mrs. E. A. Heron and Mrs. Eby. Miss Nadine Ebeling was hostess at tea to the following guests, Miss Mica Schilling, Miss Beatrice Simpson, Miss Cleo Posey, Miss Irene Farrell and Miss Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Gutzerson.

Mrs. Churchill Taylor's tea guests were Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. E. H. Lohmann and Mrs. Julius Young. Among those who had tables for the card games were Mrs. William E. Shannon, Mrs. William Lette Oliver and Mrs. Florence Brown, who with Mrs. W. O. Badgley, have had charge of many of the details of this affair, and the following: Mrs. Philip Clay, Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mrs. Charles Hubbard, Mrs. Harry Knowles, Mrs. C. K. Nicholson, Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. L. E. Howard, Mrs. Charles Bates Jr., Mrs. Charles Bates Jr., Mrs. John Francis Smith, Mrs. George Jensen, Mrs. L. E. Howard, Mrs. L. E. Barker, Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mrs. Walton Moore, Mrs. W. G. Henderson, Mrs. E. A. Heron, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Robert Hilliard Collins, Mrs. Edward Marion Walsh, Mrs. Anna White, Mrs. J. Howard, Mrs. Newton Koser, Mrs. Arthur Crellin, Mrs. Hayward Thomas, Mrs. George J. Jones, Mrs. H. E. MacFarlane, Mrs. Thomas P. Jones, Mrs. Mathias, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. William Ede, Mrs. Edward Oliver, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Victor Metcal, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Mrs. Challen Parker, Mrs. Anna Goodfellow, Mrs. Willard Williamson, Mrs. Harry Bishop, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. A. E. Farley, Mrs. Daniel Foster, Mrs. L. E. Howard, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Edward Lacey Brayton, Mrs. A. S. Macdonald, Mrs. Leon Beckwith, Mrs. M. B. Brown, Mrs. A. E. Belden, Mrs. Alexander Marx, Miss Emma Parrier, Miss Florence Brown, Mrs. Lillian Brown, Mrs. Mrs. Andrew Simpson, Mrs. L. R. Gates, Mrs. Ling, Mrs. C. W. Cushing, Mrs. A. S. Baumgartner, Mrs. B. S. Sandoz, Mrs. M. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Frank Leach Jr., and Mrs. A. E. Edwards.

MRS. FRANK PROCTOR'S tea yesterday afternoon was one of the smart affairs of the season at which nearly 200 guests were entertained. It was a summer day that brought out many light costumes and made the reception an exceptionally gay affair. The guests of the Proctor home in Vernon Heights were filled with flowers, and assisting the hostess were Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Leon Clark, Mrs. Leon Bouquiere, Mrs. Paul Dinsmore, Mrs. Irving Hawkins, Miss Beatrice Simpson and Miss Alice Grimes. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Proctor will entertain fifty guests at a dinner dance at their home.

LEAVE TAYLOR RESIDENCE. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinchey Taylor in Piedmont has been leased for the next eight months to Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lyon of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor moved across the bay today and are at Mrs. Taylor's San Francisco home at 2323 Steiner street. They are planning a delightful summer with a visit to Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. Allen Lewis, in Portland, and a guest at a trip east where they will be guests of Mrs. Taylor's uncle, Mr. C. Benedict, New York, at his estate in Connecticut. The Lyons will be interesting additions to Oakland society, but Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be very much missed and their friends are delighted that they are to return to their Piedmont home in the fall.

AT CLAREMONT COUNTRY CLUB. Mrs. Harry H. Sherwood will give a luncheon at the Claremont Country club tomorrow in honor of the visiting golf players in the tournament to be held tomorrow afternoon. Luncheon will be served in the attractive roof garden at the club, and at the golfers' table will be Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Max Rothchild, Miss Sadie Denham, Mrs. Hubert Law, Mrs. Lawrence Scott and Mrs. Arthur Watson, representing the Burlingame, Menlo, Ingleside and Berkeley clubs.

TRIP POSTPONED. Mrs. Oscar Pittman Long who had planned to go east to spend the Easter vacation with Miss Amy Long, who is at school in Washington, D. C., postponed her trip and will leave in May. She is accompanying her daughter home for the summer holidays. Miss Sally Long will go east with her, and they will spend several weeks on the Atlantic coast before returning.

LEAVE FOR DEL MONTE. Mrs. A. Denison and Mrs. Ruth Farley left yesterday for Del Monte, where they are attending the women's golf convention. Also leaving yesterday for Del Monte was Mrs. Henry Wilson, who will be at Del Monte for a week.

MRS. LEWIS FEETED. Mrs. Margaret Cameron Lewis, the writer who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Catherine at Claremont Court in Berkeley, will leave for her home in New York next week. Mrs. Lewis is the author of "The Golden Rule Dollmaker" and a series of her short stories is now running in one of the eastern magazines. Among entertainments for Mrs. Lewis was a luncheon at which Mrs. Gerstle was hostess in San Francisco this afternoon. On Monday evening Mrs. Catherine Lewis gave a dinner for her entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deering, Mrs. Orlov Black, Dr. Miller and others.

MRS. WHITE A HOSTESS. One of a series of dinners given by Mrs. William Thornton White at her home in Vernon Heights took place Tuesday evening, May 6. Another is set for Friday evening, May 8. Bridge will be the diversion of the evening after dinner.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON. Cards for a bridge game have been sent out by Mrs. A. T. Ellis and her daughter, Mrs. Louis Hines, who will entertain at the Ellis home on Tuesday afternoon, May 8.

MISS TORREY ENGAGED. An engagement of unusual interest was announced this afternoon at the home of Dorothey Torrey, daughter of Mr. Fred Torrey of Claremont, to Harold Randall, son of Mr. Randall of Berkeley. The news was told at the reception given by Mrs. Torrey at her home in Canyon Road in Berkeley last night. Several hundred guests were entertained and the engagement came as a happy surprise of the afternoon. Miss Torrey is a very beautiful girl who has been a member of the 1914 class at the University of California, where her fiancé will also be graduated. He is a son of W. E. Kelly of Piedmont and a popular fraternal man at Berkeley. Miss Torrey was graduated from the University of Berkeley several years ago, and has many friends in the younger set of Oakland and Piedmont who were present at the announcement tea. No date is set for the wedding.

QUIET WEDDING. At a quiet home ceremony yesterday, Miss Miriam Mace, daughter of Albert S. Mace of East Oakland, was married to Hugh S. Keon, well known young attorney of Oakland, whose home is in Berkeley. Only relatives were present. Several hundred guests were her traveling gown. Rev. W. M. Jackson read the marriage service in the presence of members of the two families. After a luncheon the young couple will make their home in San Francisco.

WOMAN'S BEDTIME STORY

SAN BERNARDINO, April 27.—An Oriental-American romance was lighted here today when police caused the arrest in Riverside of June Mason, a San Francisco school girl, and her Japanese lover, Harry Yamanka.

The girl is a beautiful blonde, is said to have eloped from San Francisco with the Japanese more than a month ago. Her parents frantically set police on their trail, but not until last night were they located.

Local police found them together at a local rooming house last night, but they escaped to Riverside before an arrest could be made. They were found and arrested in a Riverside hotel last night. Both asserted they loved each other and were going to Mexico to be married. The girl claims she will never go back to San Francisco alive unless her Japanese lover accompanies her.

"Love recognizes no convention, race nor creed, and I love Harry," she cried. "I shall marry him or die." She flung herself into his arms at the city jail and defied officers to separate them. They forced the lovers apart and placed them in separate cells to await advice from San Francisco.

Artist's Daughter to Go to Altar Today

NEW YORK, April 27.—Miss Irene L. Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gibson (Gibson), and George E. Post Jr., will be married in St. Bartholomew's church here today. A reception at the home of the bride's parents, 127 East Seventy-third street, will follow.

Miss Gibson chose her cousin, Miss Nancy Perkins, to be her maid of honor, and the other attendants will include the Misses Helen Crocker, Evelyn Preston, Ruth Harwood and Margot Seull, New York society buds.

Miss Post selected Chalmers Wood Jr. as his best man. His ushers will be his cousin, Bayard Truckerman Jr., Q. A. Shaw, Richard Van Nest, Garbriel, Oliver W. Wood Jr. and Langhorne Gibson, all of this city, and C. Dawson Coleman of Philadelphia. Langhorne Gibson is a son of Charles Dana Gibson.

Wife of Vice President Is Honored at Affair

WASHINGTON, April 27.—In honor of Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice-President, Mrs. Patterson, wife of Senator Patterson of Ohio, gave a charming buffet luncheon at the Congressional Club last night.

The guest list included Miss Margaret Wilson, wife of cabinet officer, senators and congressmen. Spring flowers were used for decorations.

The hostess was Mrs. T. T. Anshery, Mrs. W. H. Ellis, Mrs. Rufus S. Day, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. Overman, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Wallace Redcliffe, Mrs. Lee Thurman, Mrs. Van Orsdel, Mrs. Van Deventer, Mrs. Reeside, Mrs. George Martin and Mrs. E. E. Capehart.

WOMAN ACQUITTED OF QUICKSILVER THEFT

SAN JOSE, April 27.—Mrs. Ethel Allen, charged by San Francisco police and charged with the theft of quicksilver, was acquitted yesterday by Judge J. J. McQuinn. The testimony, according to Assistant District Attorney Bridges, failed to connect Mrs. Allen with the theft.

RICHMOND COUPLE DATE ON A "DARE"

DATE BY FRIENDS. Gilbert Bowers and Miss Ramona McShane secured a marriage license late last night and were married by Judge J. J. McQuinn. The bride was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Lynch of this place. It is claimed that the couple had been dating for three or four months. The bride was formerly a resident of Berkeley. After the wedding the couple with a party of friends went to the home of J. A. Trowbridge and Miss Mary Trowbridge where the marriage was celebrated with a dinner and impromptu party.

MOTHER SAVES FIVE BUT SACRIFICES LIFE

ABRAHAM, Mich., April 27.—Mrs. Abraham and her eight-year-old daughter were burned to death, and a son 6 years old was fatally hurt in a fire that destroyed their home here yesterday.

Mrs. Asaelius gave up her life in an effort to save all of her six children. She had passed out when the fire broke out in the second-story window, but collapsed as she reached the opening with the last of the little ones.

NO HITAW GOLD FOR EVELYN'S "POM-POM"

NEW ORLEANS, April 27.—"My son, Pom Pom, was a gold digger," said Evelyn, a carpenter, but I never would let him touch a cent of "haw's money," said Evelyn. "He was a gold digger, but I never would let him touch a cent of 'haw's money' or a boy part talk on the road to ruin. I shall make no effort to establish his legitimacy. I'm sick of courts."

One of the guests given by Mrs. A. T. Ellis at the Hotel Oakland, in honor of Mrs. Nellie Peacock, was Mrs. Guy Peterson, who is the daughter of Mrs. H. S. Henion, Mrs. Henrietta Norman, Mrs. J. E. Ellis, Mrs. E. J. Williamson, Mrs. Ellis Miller and Mrs. Charles J. Petrey.

DANCE AT HENSHAW HOME

The hospitable home of Mr. W. H. Henshaw in Vernon Heights will be the scene of a dance on Saturday evening, May 6. The dancing will be given by Mrs. Charles Keeney who will entertain nearly 100 of the smart set. A number of dinners are being planned to precede the dance and at one of these Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hines will be hosts.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR-TINTING

Nothing so robs a woman of her good looks and attractiveness as gray, streaked or faded hair. And there is no more effective hair-toning or coloring than the new hair-tinting process. It is a simple, easy to use, and safe. It is a new hair-tinting process. It is a simple, easy to use, and safe. It is a new hair-tinting process. It is a simple, easy to use, and safe.

RENO, Nev., April 27.—A reception to the members of the suffrage special who arrived in Reno yesterday was given last night. Today the visitors will be rendered a luncheon in the evening a mass meeting will be held at which the aims of the Congressional Union will be outlined.

MRS. WILSON WOODROW, FAMOUS NOVELIST, WRITES MOVIE DRAMA

Sensational Mystery Feature, "Who's Guilty," to Appear in Serial Form in The Tribune

Mrs. Wilson Woodrow, noted novelist and magazine writer, has made her debut as a "movie" author. The first work of the famous writer, and one of the most remarkable photo-drama stories ever produced, is to make its appearance shortly in "Who's Guilty," a sensational mystery feature, in fourteen episodes.

Mrs. Woodrow first wrote the photo-play as a story, and from this motion picture producers conceived the idea of making it into a powerful photo-play. The story, as written by Mrs. Woodrow, is to appear shortly in serial form in The TRIBUNE.

The piece is a wonderful narrative of circumstantial evidence, of mystery and of baffling happenings that set the law wrong, and puzzled the officers as much as it puzzles the reader in the graphic narrative.

Anna Nilsson, famous motion picture star, and Tom Moore, will appear in the film version of the story, which is shortly to be seen in this city. The story is strikingly different from anything ever presented on the screen before, and has been put into film form by the Pathes, whose wonderful successes in "The Exploits of Elaine," "The Red Circle," "The Iron Claw," and other remarkable photo-play series is well known. The pictures will be shown simultaneously with the presentation of the story in The TRIBUNE, permitting the reader to see the different episodes after reading them in Sunday's TRIBUNE.

A Mother's Peace.

If every expectant mother would get Mother's Friend from her druggist and would apply this wonderful external remedy and valuable help as directed, she would soon experience comfort and peace of mind. For many years this time-tried remedy has been used and strongly endorsed by experienced mothers, for it is the one safe, dependable remedy that penetrates to relieve all strain on nerves, cords, ligaments and all parts involved. It makes the muscles expand naturally and steps pain.

Success Is Promised In Fine Arts Ball

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Saturday night's farewell function at the Fair is already an assured success, in the estimation of the Fine Arts Ball Committee, composed of Charles Templeton Crocker and Harold L. Mark in charge of the Fine Arts Ball. It is now only a question of the magnitude of the success, and there is little doubt of that since the cause being conserved is one which appeals to all who loved the Fair and who desire to see the preservation of its fairest features—the Palace of Fine Arts and its treasure store of art work.

On this side of the bay, society in particular and Exposition admirers in general are manifesting a lively interest in the gay ball, many boxes having already been taken and many parties being assembled to enjoy the farewell and final fling which will be given by the brilliant and too brief existence of Jewel City.

The Filmore street entrance will be open to holders of ball tickets and to automobiles conveying ball parties without extra charge. Ample parking facilities will also be provided, and conveyances for those who desire it and who did not come in cars of their own, over a system of sightseeing auto busses which will charge the nominal sum of $1.10 each way.

Society Sportsman to Sell String of Horses

NEW YORK, April 27.—Because the war has made it impossible for him and Lady Beck to keep up their annual hunts that have made them world-famous in sports circles, Sir Adam Beck of London, Ontario, today is selling all his prize-winning hunters at auction here.

The sale will include eleven hunters, several of whom were winners at the last international show in England. In the list are Hampton, Zante, Sir Edward, Hydr, Monarch, Sheila, Londerborough, Harleway, Santos, Sovereign and Milton, all well known performers in the field as well as in the show ring.

Lady Beck, the wife of Sir Adam Beck, will be remembered as one of the judges of saddle horses at the last National Horse Show in New York. The Becks have been accustomed to hunting in England each winter, but the war has interfered with their arrangements. Not since the sale of the hunting stable of Sir Clifford Sifton, of Ottawa, Ontario, about a year ago, have so many noted hunting horses been offered at public auction.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1916.

THE MASSACHUSETTS PRIMARY.

The result of the Massachusetts presidential preference primary Tuesday can well prompt Colonel Roosevelt to say, "Deliver me from my fool friends." Massachusetts voters expressed in decisive fashion their protest against sending a delegation to the Republican National Convention pledged to support Colonel Roosevelt for the Presidency. They have voted to send an unpledged delegation, headed by the four unpledged delegates-at-large, Governor Samuel W. McCall, Senators Lodge and Weeks and former Senator W. Murray Crane. This ticket polled fifty percent more votes than did the "Roosevelt ticket."

Yet this Roosevelt ticket was a strong one, so far as Progressive strength goes. It was headed by Charles Sumner Bird, leader of the Progressive party in his State before it lost legal standing as a party; Representative Augustus P. Gardner, Mr. Craffon D. Cushing and Mr. Robert M. Washburn.

Colonel Roosevelt, it must be stated, did what he reasonably could to forestall such an embarrassing expression from Massachusetts voters. The Colonel in the present national contest has insistently and consistently urged against the use of his name in factional strife within the Republican party. Specifically, and personally, he told Messrs. Bird, Cushing, et al that he did not want them to use his name in the Republican primary in Massachusetts.

But directly contrary to his advice his friends put up a ticket and announced broadcast that it favored Roosevelt and afforded an opportunity to test Roosevelt's strength as a presidential candidate. Last Sunday, Mr. Bird, formerly a Progressive but latterly listed as a Republican, sent out eighty thousand telegrams at an expense of twenty thousand dollars, urging Roosevelt's friends to support the Bird-Cushing-Gardner-Washburn ticket.

Colonel Roosevelt deserves sympathy in this instance. He is not entitled to any share of the rebuke due and administered to his ill-advised partisan friends in Massachusetts for carrying on a factional fight.

SAME CONDITION IN CALIFORNIA.

A parallel case exists in this State. Contrary to Colonel Roosevelt's earnest advice against starting factional fights within the Republican party, and his refusal to let his name go on any of the Republican State primary ballots, his friends here have precipitated a factional contest, calculated to block and destroy all efforts at harmonizing the Progressive and Republican parties for the general election in November.

The Progressive designers of the hydro-electric "United" Republican group of candidates for delegates now have openly dragged in Colonel Roosevelt's name in order to win support to their factional fight. Governor Johnson, who reciprocated the endorsement of his administration by the hydro-electrics by endorsing the hydro-electrics, yesterday declared for Roosevelt for the presidential nomination; and one of the delegates on the hydro-electric ticket has declared for Johnson for the vice-presidency. Thus the Earl plot reveals itself.

But all such tactics Colonel Roosevelt has disapproved, and the Massachusetts election shows conclusively the wisdom of his stand. He does not wish his Progressive friends to attempt to disrupt the Republican party, having the wish himself to lead that party in the fight against the Democrats. Colonel Roosevelt is satisfied that the Republicans send a delegation to their own convention; the Progressives a delegation to their convention, and the two conventions in Chicago go to the work of harmonizing their differences with a spirit of good will and earnestness to effect a change in the national administration. This is the way it should be done. Corrupt jury-packing will not result in harmony at Chicago and those participating in and approving such a practice are not for harmony.

ENGLAND IGNORES LAW, TOO.

Great Britain's reply to the American protest against interference with neutral commerce was as unsatisfactory as we expected, although the sarcasm of Sir Edward Grey, which may be discovered in many of his diplomatic notes, might very well have been omitted.

The English argument is that, while the acts of the blockading forces admittedly have been contrary to prescribed international law, "modern war conditions" and new methods of transacting commerce justify ignoring established rules and law and the application of new rules—of English promulgation.

This attitude is as legal and as soundly based as the claim of the German government that inasmuch as the submarine is a new instrument of war international law should not be held to apply to it. But it is not one iota more legal or moral than the German argument.

The government of the United States should not acquiesce in a legal interpretation that is obviously devised to serve the interests of the interpreter and which is admitted not to be in accordance with international law. Great Britain has been content to rest her case upon the presumption that goods of American origin in American vessels and consigned to a neutral Scandinavian port were destined in fact for consumption in a country with which Great Britain is at war. We should insist that the fact of enemy destination be proven. And we should not submit to the English practice of seizing American merchant vessels on the high seas and conveying them into an English port without first establishing the right to such seizure under the established rules of war.

IF WE RETREAT.

It is obvious that the administration is bent upon discussing with Carranza's de facto government the question of withdrawing the punitive expedition from Mexico forthwith, a proceeding which Carranza peremptorily demanded a week ago. The purpose of the entry of American troops into Mexico was to catch Villa, dead or alive, and inflict upon him and his gang of bandits exemplary punishment for the raid on an American town and the murder of American citizens in their homes.

That purpose has not been accomplished. Our troops should not leave Mexico until it is accomplished. After all, Villa is only a type and he must be made the means of giving a lesson to all Mexicans. Three years of vacillation and neglect of duty on the part of the Washington administration has caused a harmful loss of American prestige among Mexicans. They have committed outrage after outrage, insult after insult, against our citizens with laughing abandon, knowing that the worst Washington would do would be to send another note or warn Americans to leave the country. By such indifference invited to further license they have crossed the international boundary to steal and kill.

Capture of Villa and his followers will produce a change of the Mexican mind, and elevate this nation to a plane of greater respect. It will force recognition of our ability and determination to keep our boundaries and our citizens inviolable. To abandon the campaign against Villa is to abandon our opportunity, forced upon us it is true, to make up for the losses incurred through three years of Wilson policies. More than that, it will bring upon us a greater measure of contempt than we have hitherto suffered.

Nothing will be gained by the conference between General Scott and General Obregon, because Carranza will insist upon compliance with his demands of withdrawal. If we are to retreat, defeated, we might as well omit conferences. But we should not retreat. We should not waste time with a bewhiskered bundle of ignorant conceit, whose men treacherously fired upon our troops in Parral. We should give Funston and Pershing a chance, a soldier's chance.

INVESTIGATING THE FARMER.

Investigation of actual conditions in California with regard to agricultural pursuits and occupancy of land for farming purposes, as has been planned by the State University and the Commonwealth Club, is a praiseworthy undertaking. A survey and authentic description of actual conditions will be of incalculable value in determining what policies should be followed to bring about cultivation of greater land areas, providing the cultivated areas at present are below what might be expected from the present population of the State. Of course a report by the university and the Commonwealth Club will be accepted as reliable and the data will be useful for many purposes.

But in the absence of such figures as will later on be collected, we suggest that the proportion of agriculturalists to those engaged in other pursuits may not be as low as some appear to believe. In a State where so much is to be done in other lines of industry it cannot be expected that all the population will elect to be farmers. As the State develops in other lines, so will it in agriculture. Farming will be materially promoted by creating favorable conditions for the investment of new capital in mining, railroading, shipping, manufacturing and commerce. This will mean increase in the population and the farm will get its share of such increase.

San Francisco is given all the best of the mistake by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, which contains an illustrated story to the effect that "The most impressive Easter service in the United States is held at sunrise on a rugged hill just outside Riverside, near San Francisco, Cal." Riverside has uttered a wail that has been heard on Lone Mountain and Los Angeles has stepped into the breach with a correction. Riverside "is near Los Angeles."

NOTES and COMMENT

Now, when we come to discussing the Mexican policy of the United States government—but there isn't any.

Warhop has joined the Salt Lake club. He seems to be named down to the minute, and might appropriately get at once on the firing line.

T. R. is rather severe on W. W. with his uncomfortable habit of citing dates and instances wherein he has done the wrong thing or omitted to do anything.

Now we are to have another season of Slaughter. It commenced Tuesday, and the sooner it ends the quicker a mess will cease to claim public attention.

Congressman Mann advises the country to be ready for the worst. Good advice, even if there is no trouble on the horizon. Very timely just at this juncture.

As to the election next Tuesday, the issue may be stated, as a desire on the part of genuine Republicans to have real Republicans control the Republican party of California.

The expansion of wages in the East is joyful to workers, and it is wondered if a contraction when the rush of war stuff is over will not work great protest, if not trouble.

There is some ground for a suspicion that much of the flood of anti-war messages sent to Senators and Representatives is inspired. The good-American wants only an honorable peace.

Our troops which started after Villa are recuperating. Villa doesn't seem to get tired, though continually chopped up and killed. It is seen at once what disadvantage the troops are under.

It is to be hoped that the vote for Ford through the East will not take on the character of the celebrated O'Donnell vote that persisted so long in San Francisco. It has some similar earmarks.

There is a heading to the effect that the Senate hears the plea of women voters. The wonder is how the solons got caught so that they had to listen. The administration side of both houses is greatly given to sidestepping this question.

Itney men, who in all the discussions are charged with a recklessness that greatly endangers human life, were no doubt interested in the news of Wednesday, wherein appeared the details of four street car accidents in San Francisco, one of them fatal.

This war is costing $3,500,000 an hour, and the ingenious statisticians are busy in figuring out the great beneficent things that might be achieved with the money. Such a vast enterprise as the Panama canal could be carried through on a few days' outlay.

We have it in a despatch from Sacramento that Alden Anderson, former lieutenant-governor and one time candidate for governor, frankly approves the selection of Hiram Johnson for vice-president. Politics proverbially makes strange bedfellows, but this is stranger.

We gather from the King City Rastler these particulars of a versatile editor down in that region: "J. P. Giacomazzi, who runs the pool room and the Bee at Soledad and owns the San Juan News, last week purchased the Swiss-Italian hotel at San Juan and will personally conduct the same."

LIKE A GHOST.

Lean, solemn-eyed, with his grizzled gray drooping moustache and narrow beard, James Harvey Davis of Texas, nicknamed the Human Cyclone, looks like a ghost of the old South come back to haunt the places where once it was a power. The early sixties saw many thousands men who looked just as Davis does, mounted on horses and mules, often with home-made bridles, roaming the disputed border country, subsisting on pigs and poultry which they slaughtered on the spot, and on corn stripped from the stalks and eaten in the fields as they rode through. Davis was not among them, of course, he was only 8 years old when the Civil War broke out. As he sits in the House of Representatives now, nursing one purplish-tinted knee, which hangs bent over the other, and grimly watching the proceedings of his fellow members, he is a thing apart from the rest of the show. Visitors usually inquire who he is, but are always nonplussed by his conventional name till the nickname is added, and then they stare at him afresh and marvel that so simple-looking an old rustic could stir up so theatrical a disturbance when he feels like it.—The Nation.

This chart represents battleships, battle-cruisers, scout cruisers and destroyers authorized and laid down by Great Britain and the United States from December 31, 1904, to determine sea battles. 1. These modern boats are the ones that will win. 2. Comparative number of torpedo tubes we will have when the Oklahoma and the Nevada are in service. All other torpedo tubes are useless for modern torpedoes. 3. The three scout cruisers we have would be doubtful factors because of their defective furnaces. 4. Representing the actual number of all our submarines. 5. Representing the submarines at Panama and on the Atlantic Coast that have been able to submerge during the last three maneuvers without being conveyed to port.

If the allies are successful in Europe, Great Britain could send twenty-eight dreadnoughts and battleships to make an attack on our Atlantic Coast, and still keep a sufficient number at home to guard her interests there. In case of an attack by Great Britain or any one else on our Atlantic Coast, we would not dare to take all the ships of our Pacific fleet from the Pacific, but were we to do so Great Britain's attacking fleet would outnumber our entire defensive fleet three to one. Great Britain could send against us nine battleships, we have none; thirty swift cruisers, we have three, and it is even questionable if our three could operate for any length of time because of their engines. She could send 180 destroyers to combat our 62, even if we were to bring all of ours from the Pacific.

Her ships would have an average speed of from two and a half to three knots greater than ours and the average range of her battleship guns would be greater.

Great Britain's battleships would be equipped with 112 modern torpedo tubes. We will soon have two ships with four torpedo tubes each that are of use for modern torpedoes—no more.

Great Britain has eighty submarines; she could spare forty to send here; we have two on the Atlantic Coast, north of Panama, that have been able to navigate under the water, without being conveyed to port immediately afterward; we have five more at the Canal.

On the chart, "Our Chance at Sea Against British Attack," every questionable estimate as to the numbers and efficiency of naval factors is charred in favor of the United States. All the three swift cruisers are represented at full value, although they are old, slow and their engines are inefficient in the least wind. If a true comparison of the differences were given, the line representing Great Britain's equipment in swift cruisers would be forty times as long as the line representing ours. She has built two, four, six and even eight cruisers of the finest, speediest types every year during the last ten years.

This chart estimates only the ships that Great Britain could spare during times of peace in Europe to send against us; while everything we have in the Atlantic, in the Caribbean Sea, in our navy yards, in our drydocks, even everything laid up for repairs, is counted in our favor.

And yet what chance would we have? The British navy is three hundred percent greater than ours. Japan is bound to England by an offensive and defensive treaty, and in case of war with England it might be necessary to divide our fleets and fight the navies of the two countries.

JAPAN TRIED TO PURCHASE PACIFIC ISLEFather Rougier Says He Then Sold to Great BritainBase Near Panama Canal Thus Is Alien-Owned

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Father Rougier, famous missionary of the South Seas and owner of Christmas Island, left San Francisco yesterday on the steamship Mail. Before departing he told the remarkable story of how he sold Fanning Island virtually to Great Britain, through Pelly & Armstrong, merchant princes of London, after the Japanese government had offered him $250,000 for the island.

The British plan to construct a huge harbor, coaling station and wireless at Fanning Island, which is in the direct course of the Panama canal. The recent announcement of these plans by Frederick Lamb of Scotland, who has been placed in complete charge and who is on route to Fanning Island, has aroused greater interest in San Francisco commercial and official circles than any other political development in the Pacific.

Father Rougier said that Fanning Island is an oblong coral island, with an immense lagoon in the middle, and with one entrance, a deep channel. The lagoon has a depth up to 125 feet, and can accommodate a great fleet of ships. The whole is surrounded by a coral ring, which can be easily removed by blasting, as was done recently at Papeete. Fanning Island was first owned, in the early fifteenth century, by a Scotch family named Gregg. When Gregg landed on the island he found it uninhabited and annexed it.

Following Gregg's death a protracted battle was waged in the courts at Suva, Fiji, among his numerous heirs. Eventually Fanning Island was sold by public auction and Father Rougier purchased it for $135,000.

Five years ago Father Rougier was approached by the Japanese with an offer of $250,000 to purchase Fanning Island. Father Rougier immediately took ship and went to England, where he informed the British government of the Japanese offer.

Pelly & Armstrong, acting on instructions from the British government, purchased a six-month option on the island for $25,000, sent a representative out, and soon afterwards bought Fanning Island for $350,000. Father Rougier soon afterwards became a British subject and plans for the construction of harbor works and coaling stations on the island.

Ina Coolbrith to Be Guest at Fremont High

The John C. Fremont high school will hold a celebration tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in honor of Ina Coolbrith, poet laureate of California. This will be the first celebration given for the poet by a high school.

Miss Coolbrith will address the gathering. Others who will take part in the program are: Mrs. Magdon Taylor, of the Pacific Coast Women's Press Association, who will speak, and Principal E. Morris Cox, who will also make remarks. Solos by Madame Jellicoe and selections by the high school orchestra will constitute the musical entertainment.

A feature of the celebration will be the presentation to the school by the Fremont Parents' and Teachers' Association of a portrait of Miss Coolbrith.

Committee for Bazaar to Meet

German societies of northern California will hold a bazaar in the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco from May 19 to 24. The affair will be given for the benefit of the wounded Germans and Austro-Hungarians.

Preparations call for the transformation of the big building into a scene of the Arabian Nights, and promise splendor to rival that of the recent bazaar in New York.

The Oakland bazaar committee will have charge of three booths, and already have collected a large sum. The committee will meet this evening in the Pacific building at Jefferson and Fourteenth streets, at a session to which all members of the German colony are invited. Mrs. B. Benzinger is president.

U. S. Inspectors End
Chase After Horne

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Fred A. Horne, a bootlegger employed at the Hercules powder plant at Pinole, was arrested today by postal inspectors, in connection with an indictment returned here last Thursday for wrongful use of the mails. It is claimed that Horne sent an obscene letter to his mother-in-law, Mrs. T. Smith, and his wife at the former's home, 515-A Florida street. Prior to his indictment and arrest an accusation had been filed against him. Horne appeared before a justice of the peace at Pinole and was released on $500 bond furnished by John Fawcett and the latter's wife. This was forfeited when Horne disappeared.

Dismissed, Will Face New Charge

When Frank Terramora Jr. completes his six months' sentence in the county jail tomorrow for larceny of property from J. R. Molera of Alameda, with whose wife he eloped to New York last year, he will face a new and more serious charge, which will be sworn to by Molera. The charge is a felony and has to do with the alleged relations of Terramora and Mrs. Molera as developed in her divorce trial several months ago.

The Supreme Court recently granted Terramora a new trial in the case in which he was convicted and has now served his sentence. The case was only a misdemeanor and may now be dismissed, according to Deputy District Attorney W. D. Smith, in view of the new charge.

Molera, who has been ill since the trial of Terramora, has reported to the district attorney that he received a letter threatening him with death if he continued to "persecute" Terramora. An effort is being made to learn the identity of the writer.

Science Lecture at Macdonough Theater

Christian Science will be the subject of a lecture to be given at Macdonough Theater at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Virgil O. Strickler, C. S., of New York City, under the auspices of Third Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city. The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Newton, Mass., has appointed a board of lecturers whose members respond to calls from churches of that denomination to lecture on Christian Science, and Strickler is a member of this board of lecturers. The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. Alice L. Mannhart, second reader of Third Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city. The public is invited to be present.

"Absent on Leave" Is Title of Annual Fantasy

BERKELEY, April 27.—Sandwiched between examinations and study periods, members of the cast of the extravaganza which the senior class of the University of California is to give as a preliminary to the commencement exercises, will hold rehearsals during the next two weeks. It was hoped that the usual pressure of final examinations would not be made more complex this year by rehearsing for the extravaganza, but Coach Travers has found it necessary to double up on the rehearsals scheduled.

"Absent on Leave" is the title of the extravaganza to be offered by the graduating students this year. It has been written by Miss Hazel Havens and Roger Goss, editors respectively of the Occident Magazine and the Pelican Magazine. An unusual plot, something akin to that which has come to be traditional for the Parthenon, has been adopted.

The extravaganza offers ample opportunity not only for distinguished work in the solo parts, but for capable choruses as well and a feature is to be made of the latter. The long-hair chorus, bar-maid chorus and many others have been arranged as one of the chief attractions of the farce.

William S. Rainey, who has played one of the most capable college players of recent years, is to take his final campus ring at his native place, leading role, with Miss Elsie Lee playing the opposite part. R. M. Light and R. G. Dudley will have the chief character parts. Miss Grace Parker as Fanny, Miss Clara Tucker as the bar-maid, Lucette, and Miss Louise Shepp as the abbess complete the cast of principal roles.

The recreation department budget for the fiscal year, 1916-1917, was adopted at a special meeting of the commission and transmitted today to Commissioner of Revenue and Finance W. H. Edwards. The playground department is asking for $134,617. Last year the estimate was $149,000, but was pruned by the city council to only $92,000.

Of the $134,617 asked by the department, $85,840 is for maintenance, and $48,777 for improvements. In the largest single item in the budget is that for an additional building to the municipal bathhouse.

The bathhouse is the only one city institution which has proved a paying investment. The activities at the willows have increased so greatly that the new wing is made necessary.

PLAYGROUND CHILDREN TO DEPICT BARDAnnual Festival Will Be Shakespeare
CelebrationBoys and Girls in Garb of Romantic Period to Act

With the quaint dances of Elizabethan times, a pageant on Lake Merritt showing the disbanding of the Queen and her court, with games, plays and stunts, the children of Oakland will, next Saturday, observe the Shakespearean tercentenary.

The celebration, arranged by the Playground Commission and Recreation Department employees, under the direction of J. B. Nash, will, it is said, be the biggest affair of its kind ever held on the Pacific Coast. All the customs of the Elizabethan period will be portrayed, the affair being a revivification of the old-time spring merrymaking of the days when the Bard of Avon flourished.

The boys and girls of each playground district have been especially trained to take part in the big event, which will be held at Lakeside Park. More than 4,000 costumed revelers will take part in the pageant and games at the park, and the dances of old will be seen on the lawns. The boys and girls of the different park divisions will present such offerings as "The Early English Minuet," "Seven Jumps Dance," "The Tempest Dance," "Puck's Quadrille." There will also be a depiction of Robin Hood and his merry men, and a variety of ancient games and athletic contests.

SCENES FROM PLAYS.
At the Melchior fountain, scenes from various Shakespearean plays will be enacted. "The Tempest," "As You Like It," and "A Winter's Tale" are among the plays to be seen. Costumed groups dressed as Shakespearean characters, will take part in the pageant.

A bowling tournament by men will be held on the green, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Social Service Club will also play a match. Pipers, in Highland costume, will be provided through the cooperation of St. Andrew's Society, and will lead the pageant and supply music for some of the dances and stunts. The Municipal Band, under the direction of Paul Steinfeldt, will play throughout the big celebration.

THE SONNET LADY.
Shaw's "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets," will be presented by the Collegiate Alumnae in connection with a group of Shakespearean songs by the Choral Society of Mills College. Several other special events are being planned for the great festival.

The children who are to take part in the various features of the celebration have in many cases been coaching for the festival for months. Teachers declare that some of the dances and stunts have never been exhibited before, and that the entire celebration is being presented on a larger scale than any ever offered in the West.

He Takes $900;
She Buys Tubs
Hubby Takes Savings and Goes 'South'

Mrs. Emma Kosmos worked at taking in washing for many years in Brooklyn, N. Y., and saved her money with the utmost pains. Finally she accumulated a bank account of over $1,300. Then she met a man whose charm of manner and pleasing ways won her heart, and they were married.

Andrew Kosmos, the husband, had ideas, Brooklyn, N. Y., was no place to spend one's life, especially after having toiled there for years over the wash tub, scrubbing the soiled linen of the Brooklynese. Andrew advocated California, the land of poppies, gold and romance, and Emma finally consented to disburse enough from the savings fund for the trip.

With only $900 left, they took lodgings at 540 Tenth street. Emma Kosmos was not the woman to run idle, and she set up the hard earned increments of her toll in the bathing suite. She sailed forth yesterday to seek employment.

Tragedy awaited her when she returned home. Andrew was gone, and she was left with a man who knew how to spend money so pleasantly. He had left a note in which he explained that Oakland was not so adventurous and romantic a place as he had conceived it to be. He had gone to South America—state and city not designated, to woo the Goddess of Fortune.

Emma Kosmos hastened to the bank in which she had deposited her savings in a vault. Andrew had a key to the vault. The money was gone. Andrew found it distasteful to work the gold-diggers without a gift of gold, and he had taken the $900.

Mrs. Kosmos has applied to the police to find her husband. In the meantime she has used her few remaining dollars to purchase a wash tub, a boiler, a scrub board, a wringer, and several large bars of soap.

SHIP PLANT TO BE BUILT ON ESTUARY

A new shipbuilding plant equipped with a 1,200-foot drydock and employing 1,000 or more men will be the latest addition to Oakland's rapidly developing shipbuilding facilities.

D. C. Hanlon, president of the Hanlon Drydock and Shipbuilding Co., has announced his intention of building the new plant, which will be capable of building and handling large steel vessels. According to Hanlon, the scheme has been under contemplation for the past ten months.

Two large Eastern iron works, he says, have offered to support the project, by advancing him money to get started and also by supplying steel. Hanlon will not give out the names of his backers, but expects to come to an arrangement with one of them soon.

The proposed big new shipyard will be built on seventeen acres of land at the foot of Fifth avenue, where the present Hanlon drydock and shipyard are situated. Most of this land has been acquired from the city of Oakland under long term leases with the consent of the United States government.

L. A. Burns, the lumber operator, is interested with Hanlon in the new plant. Hanlon has managed his shipyard, which he built up himself, for the past eighteen years.

Discussing his latest project, Hanlon says: "I am selling my property, which is worth $250,000. No one knows what it will be worth when we begin building steel ships, for we expect to profit by the big shipbuilding boom that is at present sweeping the world."

"When we shall be able to start our building operations I cannot say at this time. However, our plans are definitely made and the delay should not be long."

4 JURORS IN BOX TO HEAR
SLAUGHTERSecond Trial Begins With Technical Fight of LawyersWork of Selecting Men for Jury Starts
Wrangles

OROVILLE, April 27.—Work of gathering a jury to try Rev. Anderson Slaughter for the second time on a charge of attacking Gurudeo Lamson, 15, proceeded rapidly today. Four jurors have been selected out of a panel of thirty for the trial of Slaughter, and when court resumed today a new lot of venturers were on hand to be questioned. The four first sworn were taken in custody by the sheriff to remain in his care until the trial ends and they are dismissed. The jurors are John Flanagan, creamery man, aged 47, of Gridley; Daniel Zink, farmer, aged 45, of Berry Creek; J. P. Hollingsworth, farmer, aged 35, of Chico; Joseph Darrell, salesman, aged 44, of Oroville.

Upon the adjournment of court, the jurors were ordered into the custody of Sheriff Riddle, who was ordered to keep them in a safe and secluded place until they were discharged by the court. In making the order looking up the jurors, the court declared that this action had been suggested by both the prosecution and defense.

DEFENSE FIGHTS.
The most serious question that arose during the day was as to the legality of the order of the court whereby a special venire was summoned when the regular venire of Oroville was drawn by the supervisors in January had not been exhausted.

Immediately after the first panel was exhausted, Attorneys Kennedy and Schaefer both entered a formal and lengthy objection to the administration of the oath to any of the talesmen summoned on the special venire.

They alleged that there was no warrant or authority in law for such procedure. In addition to the general objection entered, the attorneys for the defense also made a special one against the administration of the oath to each of the talesmen first drawn from the box. The court overruled the objection, declaring that it was within his power, if he so desired, to cause a special venire to be summoned.

ASK ALIENIST.
The defense also made a formal request today that they be allowed to have an alienist examine Gurudeo Lamson to determine whether in his opinion she was abnormal mentally or a pathological liar, as the defense has claimed. They stated that they desired Dr. D. D. Lustig, an alienist of San Francisco, to make the examination, and offered to bear all of the expenses.

The district attorney's office refused to give its consent, declaring that nothing material to the case could be established by such testimony. The request was denied by the court.

According to Probation Officer China, Gurudeo Lamson is ready to again face the ordeal of the witness stand. Her only request is that her mother be not allowed to see her or communicate with her. This request is explained by the stormy scenes that have occurred upon the occasion of previous interviews. Gurudeo Lamson is still in receipt of letters almost daily from practically every part of the state.

FAMOUS PAINTER DIES.
NEW YORK, April 27.—Harold Gardiner Cushing, well known as a portrait painter, died suddenly of heart disease at his home here today. He was 47 years old. In 1906 he was elected an association National Academician.

SENATOR ATTACKS WAR WIRE SENDERS

Hastings of Wisconsin Says He Is Deluged With Notes

WASHINGTON, April 21. — Senator Hustling, Democrat, told the Senate today that the American embargo conference had conducted a campaign in Wisconsin to induce him to support an embargo resolution. He said that the war munitions to Europe. He submitted a thousand letters from Wisconsin citizens, which he said all emanated from the Chicago headquarters of this organization.

Senator Hustling said thousands of telegrams deluging Congress charging the President with seeking war with Germany emanated from the embargo conference. He declared there was a plot to poison the minds of citizens all over the country with the thought that the President wants war, when every fact shows the opposite.

The Senator submitted to the Senate a form letter signed W. R. McDonald, secretary of the American embargo conference, sent to citizens of Wisconsin asking them to write to the President to him urging support of an embargo resolution. The McDonald letter read to the Senate advised Wisconsin citizens to cooperate with the embargo conference in the campaign to induce the President with other Wisconsin representatives in letter stated the conference would reimburse the sender for any expense incurred.

ATTACKS FORM.

Senator Husting especially attacked one form of telegram which declared the sender "free and clear" from "any kind of country war on the verge of war."

"The cruelty and cunning of this telegram is that it is framed weeks ahead of any crises," he said, and "lay for weeks in the offices of the propagandists, waiting for the right opportunity."

Senator Husting urged a congressional inquiry to determine exactly who is responsible for the propaganda. "I think the government should follow these messengers to their poisonous source," he declared. "I think it should warn everyone that if this war continues for a year or so and if there instances continue there can be only one end."

ALSO GOT THEM.

Senator Worris (Republican) said he had received many telegrams from Cal-

"Consequently I am astonished that any senator should make such a speech as we have listened to and I believe the senator might well be admonished to do so."

"The senator from California will have to permit me, as long as I am a senator, to be my own judge as to what is or is Senator Pomeroy of Ohio and Senator Sherman of Illinois also expressed disapproval of the telegram campaign. The discussion ended without action.

Jitneys Attacked in Washington Court

BELLINGHAM, Wash., April 27.—The Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Company has instituted proceedings in the superior court asking for a temporary restraining order against eleven jitney drivers to compel them to cease operations until they have complied with the provisions of the State regulatory law. The city regulatory ordinance, the plaintiff alleges that the jitneys have combined to cripple street car traffic, that the drivers have conspired to endanger the lives of pedestrians by speeding around street cars, that the drivers have gathered forces and that unless relief is granted, the lawless conduct will be gained through the courts in the enforcement of the laws, the street railway company must abandon its service, thus causing great inconvenience on the public. The argument for the temporary order will be heard next Wednesday.

MATERIAL RECOVERIES
FEATURE OF MARKET
Specialty Stocks Again Advance; Other Issues Show Improvement

NEW YORK, April 27.—Material recoveries from yesterday's final prices were registered at today's opening, although gains were again offset by moderate losses.

The familiar specialties, particularly American and Baldwin Locomotives, Crucible Steel, Studebaker and U. S. Industrial Alcohol, advanced 1 to 1 1/2 points, and United States Steel, which was under restraint in the previous session, also showed moderate improvement.

There was a broader demand for high-class rails, the Pacifics, Reading, Erie and Chesapeake and Ohio rising one to almost two points, with further activity in Norfolk and Western.

Mercantile Marine preferred was firm, but the common receded a point.

Bathlehem Steel fell 1/4 to 4 1/8.

LONDON, April 27.—American securities on the subside closed steady today after an idle session.

Movements of representative American securities on the London stock exchange today were: American Locomotive, 1/8; United States Steel, 1/8; American Pacific, 1/8; Missouri, Kansas & Texas, 1/8.

PROFESSIONAL COMMENT.

New York Financial News Bureau.—While specialties pools are encouraged over the favorable Norfolk & Western dividend action, the general sentiment seems to be to await official developments on the subject of a subcommittee and military conference between the United States and Mexico conference this week.

Clark, Childs & Co.—Market-wise, the failure of the directors to make a special dividend payment on United States Steel is a long range long range bull. Steel is in position where it will be confidently bought on any dip.

Josephthal Loucheim & Co.—With the economic controversy relating to a satisfactory conclusion, we will see stocks can be bought for a fair upturn.

Christians Meet Many Problems in India

WASHINGTON, April 27.—To do successful missionary work among Hindus, Christians must recognize, for a time at least, the caste system, Sherwood Eddy, noted worker in Oriental fields, told the Men's Missionary Congress here today.

Hindus of one caste will not accept religious advice from another, he said. But if the Christian religion could have sufficient teachers who are members of the lower strata of society, fifty million converts would be obtained in a short time, Eddy predicted.

He had found in China, he said, that the educated classes were the hardest to reach; but that in India, it was the uneducated mass of lower caste Hindus that was hard to get at.

Mr. Went-And-Out-It—Here's Mr. 'Gels-It'

The New Plan Corn Cure That's as Sure as the Rising Sun.

"Glad to meet you!" says the razor to the corn. "It bleed for you!" says the corn to the razor. Razors and corns love each other. Corns love, to be cut, picked, gouged, salved, plastered and jerked out, they grow faster. Mr. and Mrs. Went-And-Out-It realize it now, they use "Gels-It" instead. It's the wonderful, simple corn-cure that never fails. Stops pain. You apply it in 2 seconds, it dries at once; the corn is doomed. Nothing to stick to the stocking or press on the corn. It means good-night to plasters, salves, diggers, razors and toe-banding. You can wear smaller shoes. Your corns will come right off, "clean as a whistle." Never inflames healthy flesh. The world's biggest selling corn cure. "Gels-It" is sold by druggists everywhere. See a bottle, or sent direct by B. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Oakland at all stores of The Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.

"Why, O Why, Did I Do It? 'Gels-It' for Me After This—If I Live!"

More Men Than Women Have Appendicitis

Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Oakland people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-I-ka is surprising. WOMEN WILL BE DANGER'S GUESTS

Pantages Star to Entertain at Reception on Stage Tomorrow.

Mme. Makarenko, remarkable Russian dancer, and one of the most famous women in the entire world, will meet the women of Oakland personally tomorrow when, after the matinee performance at the Pantages, where she is starring in "A Dream of the Orient," she will hold a reception on the stage. At this reception she will exhibit her wonderful collection of Oriental curios, and show in detail the rare embroidered stage setting, all made by her own hand. Basking the Orient for rare silks and other goods, Madame Makarenko spent an entire season designing and fashioning the remarkable effects, draperies and costumes shown in the weird fantasy in which she has startled the theatrical world.

Her skill as a needlewoman is no less than that as a theatrical star, and the variable collection of embroideries, a curiosity she has brought with her to Oakland has been the despair of museums. She will display her rarest treasures for the women of Oakland, and will explain the making of any one of the articles in which her guests may take an interest.

The reception will be held immediately after the Friday afternoon performance. As soon as the act is over a runway will be raised to the stage and the women in the audience invited to walk onto the stage and meet the dancer. She will be assisted in receiving by her ballet girls.

Mme. Makarenko, at her magnificent home in Petrograd, always holds Friday afternoon receptions to her friends in the Russian capital. On the road, she adhered to the same custom, inviting all the women at every city she visits to attend her reception, which, of course, must be on the stage, which is really her home when travelling.

Tomorrow's affair will be unique in the annals of stage events and an interesting affair from any standpoint.

Hetty Green "Cured" by One Hot Toddy

NEW YORK, April 27.—The hot toddy, standard remedy of a passing generation, was the principal "medicine" in the cure of Mrs. Hetty Green, octogenarian financier.

Mrs. Green is back at her desk attending to business as usual. It appears, according to her son, that she suffered a chill after an automobile ride on Sunday, and developed a cold.

1915 Exposition Days Are Revived Gay Zone Features Again Enacted

A SPANISH TOREADOR AND SENORITA ON THE "ZONE" AT THE OWL'S NOVELTY DANCE AND ENTERTAINMENT HELD TUESDAY EVENING IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Owl Drug Company Hosts at Masque to Two Hundred Guests in San Francisco

The zone, in all its splendor of yesterday, was brought back to reality by a novel entertainment and dance held by the Owl Drug Company at its headquarters in San Francisco on Tuesday evening, when over 200 persons took part in a post-exposition masque.

Gaily bedecked Spanish maidens and toreadors arrayed in the costumes of their native land, danced, peons from war-torn Mexico played and amused the crowd with acts in the "Native Mexican Village," sea nymphs, daughters of Neptune diving girls and other attractions at the exposition last year were vividly represented on the Owl's "joy zone."

Several score of representatives from Oakland attended and returned with awards for their ability. The Oakland store managers were victorious over the San Francisco contingent in the button-sewing contest. The program included ball driving contests and many other exciting features. Miss Ethel Cowpertwaite, a niece of R. E. Miller, head of the Owl Drug Company, sang several solos.

O. A. E. to Inaugurate Fast Express Service

For the accommodation of business houses in the San Francisco bay region and in the principal cities of the Sacramento valley, arrangements have been made to institute a fast freight service to be operated daily, except Sunday, beginning May 1. The parties to the agreement are the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway, which will take over, at Bay Point, merchandise carloads delivered to the Santa Fe at San Francisco and Oakland depots, and the Northern Electric, over whose tracks the fast freight service will find entry to such cities as Colusa, Oroville, Chico, Yuba City, Marysville, Gridley, Woodland and other points.

The service will handle also carload lots from Eastern points, but its principal advantage from the standpoint of local distributors and up-state merchants will be the fast delivery and elimination of a second handling. It is intended to carry out plans heretofore advocated by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and other commercial organizations.

Toiler Held Prisoner in Pipe Underground

SACRAMENTO, April 27.—Overcome by tar paint fumes, G. C. Cox, workman, lay in a 20-inch water pipe that is being laid into Capitol Park at Twelfth and L streets, from 11 o'clock yesterday until drilled out at 5:40 last night.

The section of pipe where Cox was painting from within had just been riveted. Cox asked one of his fellow workmen to tap on the pipe in time for him to come out and see a circus parade.

The workman forgot, and it was not until the men were quitting the job at 5 o'clock that Cox was missed. Inspector Walter Kay then crawled 160 feet to reach Cox, but could not pull him out.

An air hammer was heavily pressed into service, and after a half hour's drilling a piece of the pipe was removed and Cox, alive but barely conscious, was lifted out.

The crowd cheered as Cox was taken to the lawn in Capitol park, where oxygen was administered by Policemen Sergeant Heurikson. Cox was then removed to the Sisters' Hospital.

Danger May Lurk in New "Whiskered Bird"

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The State Fish and Game Commission is opposed to Theodore Roosevelt's proposed contribution of a "whiskered nut eater" to the birdland of California. This announcement was made by the commission yesterday following the publication of a story to the effect that someone up state had requested the former President for a pair of the strange birds he recently discovered in the West Indies. It was proposed to liberate the birds in the Sutter Buttes.

Ernest Schaeffle, executive secretary of the Fish and Game Commission, says that it is a dangerous experiment to import a "whiskered nut eater" or any other strange bird or animal without first determining what effect such an introduction will have on the balance existing in the wild life of the state.

Auto Hits Safety Station; Four Hurt

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—Two men and two women were severely bruised late last night when an automobile driven by James E. Betts, resident manager of the Continental Casualty Company, crashed into a safety station at Sansome and Market streets.

James E. Betts of 143 Twenty-third avenue suffered lacerations of the face and scalp.

Mrs. James E. Betts' back was wrenched and she was cut about the face.

W. P. Lincoln, assistant general manager of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad of Los Angeles, and Mrs. W. F. Lincoln were bruised.

OTTAWA WAREHOUSE AFIRE. OTTAWA, Ont., April 27.—Fire which broke out in a Central Mill storehouse during the night was quickly controlled, the damage being $500, according to estimates today.

The blaze was not believed incendiary. First reports said there was an explosion, but investigation showed that this was the backfire from a big military motor truck. Hospital supplies and blankets were damaged.

Two Hundred SUITS at Ten Dollars

—ringing smartly with the style-life of Spring, have just come in from New York—another of those wonderful purchases by our Mr. A. Harris, now in New York City.

Any woman with style-knowledge and quality-knowledge will recognize them as worth $25, yet, through the urgencies pressing the manufacturers, we got them to sell at the surprising price of

They cost the makers more, much more, but designers and manufacturers are already capitalizing their energies on Fall garments, forgetting their losses on Spring merchandise.

ANY WOMAN CAN BE FITTED

In making this purchase, it was an inducement as well as the price, that there was a full range of sizes to fit the dainty "16" figures and all those between, up to the stout woman demanding a 44 size.
